One. Report to Shareholders

Dear shareholders, ladies and gentlemen:

Gamania Group's 2023 consolidated operating revenue was NTD 9.79 billion, operating gross profit was NTD 3.79 billion, and operating profit was NTD 640 million; under review, the annual revenue and profit scale decreased, mainly due to small sales and no new product introductions. However, through offline special events and localized operations, we have driven a significant increase in active players. Additionally, under continuous cultivation of the digital entertainment landscape, our diversified business revenue has steadily grown. The Company's net profit after tax reached NTD 580 million, and EPS was NTD 3.28.

In the face of the challenges of the macro environment, Gamania Group has never stopped, and realized the business goal of a pan-entertainment ecosystem through multi-faceted business strategies. Looking back to 2023, the annual revisions, new classes, and large-scale events of many key games have consolidated player activity. Among them, "Lineage M" was revamped for the 6th anniversary, allowing cross-country battles between Taiwan and South Korea for the first time; for the 18th anniversary, "MapleStory" opened up new topics through diverse cross-borders, and also entered Taipei Music Center to create large-scale parties to reward players and attract thousands of people to participate. 10,000 people have fun online and announced the biggest revision of the past years. In addition, limited-edition events for the 14th anniversary of "Elsword" and "Mabinogi" gathering players to interact through Vtuber and the community all drove the growth of monthly average active users.

Continuously pursuing the key growth momentum of diversified business layout, Gamania Group's services in payment, e-commerce, IP, information security and other fields are closely connected and advancing hand in hand. In addition to optimizing the cash flow service, GASH also targets the new generation of IP fans economy to effectively increase the contribution of digital collectors. Gamania Payment focuses on the pan-entertainment channel, expands the payment scenarios such as ACGN and amusement park, and creates an interesting payment experience. E-commerce leisure shopping has mainly focused on ACGN categories, which has led to an 80% increase in customers for several years. Discover richer original IP through "bfcreators" program, Gamania Group assists over 100 creators in the matching of promotional resources, and is developing towards cooperation with brokers; about 2,000 online manga titles have been accumulated on the literature and manga star platforms so far and received 6 million views. In addition, to embrace the digital wave, Digicentre showed the capabilities of its information security technology, actively participated in cloud and information security conferences, and provided customized solutions to enterprises, which drove the annual growth of its commerce business by 1.5%.

Looking forward to 2024, we expect the classic game "MapleStory" to create a new growth curve through the largest revision in the past years, and to boost the revenue momentum side by side with the new distributor's product "Wars of Prussia" to be launched in Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau. GASH has also introduced a new "super-store instant deposit" function that allows users to more safely store services at the four major hyper-commercial channels, and develop new types of digital products to enrich the collection experience. In terms of IP, the cartoon star collaborated with PILI puppet show and the Chinese astrologer Tang Qiyang to cooperate with each other to expand new user forms. As the demand for information security and cloud-based information security of global enterprises continues to rise, Digicentre is expanding its customers in diversified industries and in response to the net zero carbon emissions issue. The ESG Intelligence Center uses digital tools to assist enterprises to quickly introduce net zero emissions management to increase business development.

Gamania Group will continue to focus on "Data, AI, Globalization" and embrace the new wave of the high-tech era. Thank you for your continued trust and guidance towards Gamania Group. We will adhere to our commitment to sustainable development and move forward with solid operating capabilities to share the Company's operating results with all shareholders.

I wish you

The best in all your endeavors and happiness and well-being of you and your loved ones!

Chairman and President
Liu, Po-Yuan

3. Status of Research and Development

Refer to the descriptions about R&D accomplishments under “I. Scope of Operation” under “Five. Overview of Operation” for details.

4. Expected Sales Volume and Rationale

Due to the wide variety of operating revenues, the measurement units are different and the Company has not prepared financial forecasts, so there is no statistical value of the expected sales volume.

5. Impacts from External Competition, Regulatory Environment, and Overall Operational Setting

(1) Impacts from External Competition and Overall Operational Setting

The popularization of smart phones and mobile devices has contributed to the rapid growths in the production value brought about by games and has also attracted accession of foreign game service providers at the same time. As a result, the competition on the domestic gaming market is getting fiercer and fiercer. However, systemic impacts and risks such as the external environment, international trade disputes, and regional conflicts have impacted global economic growth and increased uncertainty in the business environment. As an online enterprise, the core game consumers are the main body and various business entities are connected to drive the Company's growth momentum.

(2) Impacts from the Regulatory Setting

As far as the regulatory setting is concerned, besides complying with national policies and regulatory requirements, respective units, namely finance, sales, and auditing, of the Company are paying close attention to changes in important policies and laws in the nation at any time and are precisely keeping track of the latest information so as to adjust the Company's internal system and operating activities accordingly and to ensure smooth corporate operations.

Note 2: When the chairman and president or someone charged with equivalent responsibilities (the highest-ranking manager) are the same person, are each other's spouse, or are relatives of the first degree of kinship, the reason, legitimacy, necessity, and countermeasures shall be stated below:

- (I) The industry that the Company is in is changing quickly. Chairman Liu, Po-Yuan also serves as the President for the purpose of enhancing the operational efficiency and boosting decision-making capability given his broad perspective, trend insights and flexible strategic approaches which are famous in the industry, so as to create maximum value for the Company and give back to shareholders.
- (II) To enhance corporate governance, the Company has taken the following measures:
  1. The Company has established functional committees and selected outstanding professionals in different fields to be independent directors and members to strengthen the Board's operation.
  2. The Company's independent directors participate in the Remuneration Committee, Audit Committee, Nomination Committee and internal meetings to strengthen corporate governance.
  3. Each year, the Company plans at least two sessions of continuing study for Board members to strengthen board competency.

4. In 2019, the Board approved the establishment of the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee and voluntarily prepared the Corporate Social Responsibility Report to strengthen corporate governance.
5. Only the Chairman and President are the same person in the Company. No other directors are also employees of the Company.

(3) If the chairman of the Board of Directors is the same person as the general manager or the person of equivalent post (the highest level manager), or a spouse or relative within the first degree of kinship, the reason, reasonableness, necessity, and response measures shall be explained

Gamania is operated in a rapidly changing industry. With a macroscopic view, vision, and agility, Chairperson Liu, Po-Yuan sees through the industry's future and takes up the president post concurrently to enhance operational efficiency and decision-making in order to maximize value and benefit shareholders.

Our specific measures for strengthening corporate governance are as follows:

1. The Company has set up functional committees for which independent directors and members that are the best of their kind in the industry are selected to reinforce the function of the Board of Directors.
2. The independent directors of the Company take part in the Compensation and Remuneration Committee, the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee and important internal meetings for reinforced corporate governance.
3. The Company plans at least 2 continuing education courses for the members of its Board of Directors each year to reinforce the function of the Board of Directors.
4. The Company established the ESG Committee in 2019 with the approval of the Board of Directors, and voluntarily prepared the Sustainability Report (formerly known as the Corporate Social Responsibility Report) to strengthen corporate governance.
5. Only the Chairman and the President are the same person in the Company. No other directors are also employees of the Company.

III. Remuneration paid to directors, supervisors, general managers and deputy general managers in the most recent year

Meanwhile, there are the Employee Welfare Committee and the Pension Fund Supervisory Committee in place to set aside the employee welfare fund and the pension fund as required by law, to hold employee communication meetings periodically, to set up the daycare center for employees' children, and to prepare details about distribution of bonus to employees so that the Company can share its profits with all employees. People with disabilities are hired and the charity foundation is established to encourage young people to work hard to realize their dreams in honor of corporate social responsibilities. Meanwhile, industrial workshops organized by the competent authority are proactively participated in and investor conferences are held from time to time. The Company also has the Investor Relations Department and website to provide related information for investors' reference. Operation at the Board of Directors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Directors of the Company unfaithfully recused themselves from proposals having a conflict of interest with them.</li> <li>● We have established the Rules of Procedure for Meetings of Shareholders and implemented them unfaithfully.</li> <li>● We have established the Rules of Procedure for Meetings of Board of Directors and implemented them unfaithfully.</li> <li>● We have purchased liability insurance for directors, and the meeting of shareholders has approved the inclusion of the liability insurance for supervisors in the Articles of Incorporation and report to the Board after the insurance's renewal or change.</li> <li>● Except for absences due to unexpected or important work-related affairs, all directors participated in the supervision and discussion of the related proposals throughout each board meeting.</li> </ul> | No difference   |

(XI) Implementation of the internal control system

1. Declaration on Internal Control:

Date: March 6, 2024

The Company states the following with respect to its 2023 internal control system based on the results of a self-assessment:

- I. The Company knows that establishing, enforcing, and maintaining an internal control system is the responsibility of the Company's Board of Directors and managers and has such a system in place already. The purpose of the system is to reasonably ensure the achievement of various objectives, including operational efficiency and effectiveness (including profitability, business performance and the security of assets), the reliability, timeliness and transparency of information disclosed, and compliance with relevant guidelines as well as relevant laws and regulations.
- II. The internal control system has its inherited restrictions that cannot be overcome with improved design. An effective internal control system can also only reasonably ensure the fulfillment of the three goals stated above and its effectiveness may change as the environment or situation changes. There is a self-surveillance mechanism, however, built inside the internal control system of the Company that helps the Company take a corrective action against deficiencies confirmed.

- III. The Company determines the effectiveness of the design and implementation of its internal control system in accordance with the items in "Governing Regulations for Public Company's Establishment of Internal Control System" (hereinafter called "Governing Regulations") that are related to the effectiveness of internal control systems. The items adopted in the Governing Regulations for determining the internal control system are the five constitutional elements of the internal control system divided according to the management and control process: 1. control environment, 2. risk assessment, 3. control process, 4. information and communication, and 5. supervision. Each element further encompasses several items. Please refer to "Governing Regulations" for details.
- IV. The Company has already adopted the aforesaid items for assessing the effectiveness of its internal control system in terms of system design and implementation.
- V. Based on the aforementioned evaluation results, the Company believes that its internal control system (including the supervision and management of subsidiaries) as of December 31, 2023, including the design and implementation of a reliable, timely, transparent and compliant internal control system with relevant regulations and applicable laws and regulations, are effective and can reasonably ensure the achievement of the above objectives.
- VI. This declaration constitutes a major part of the Company's Annual Report and the Company's Prospectus that are made available to the public. If the aforesaid published contents are found to be false, or fraudulent in any way, the Company and its management shall be legally liable in accordance with Articles 20, 32, 171 and 174 of the Securities and Exchange Act.
- VII. This statement was approved by the Company's Board of Directors on March 6, 2024. Among the 6 directors present, 0 had objections and the remainder all agreed with the content of this statement and declare here.

(IV) Evaluation of CPA's Independence

The Company's Audit Committee evaluates the independence and suitability of its subordinate CPAs every year. In addition to requiring CPAs to provide "Declaration of Independence" and "Audit Quality Indicators (AQIs)", the audit is conducted in accordance with the standards in the following table and 13 AQI indicators evaluation. It was confirmed that the CPAs have no other financial interests or business relationship with the Company, and that the CPA's family members do not violate the independence requirements. AQI indicator information is also used to confirm that the CPA and the firm have different experience and the number of training hours is equivalent to the industry average. In addition, we will continue to introduce digital auditing tools in the past three years to improve audit quality. The evaluation results of the most recent year were discussed and approved by the Audit Committee on March 6, 2024, and submitted for the Board of Directors' resolution on March 6, 2024 to evaluate the independence and suitability of the CPAs.

(VI) Company's dividend policy and implementation status

1. Dividend policy:

In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, the Company should set aside profit before tax of the current year before deducting the remuneration of employees and the remuneration of directors, and allocates 10%-15% for the remuneration of employees and no more than 2% for the remuneration of the directors. The Company shall appropriate for write-off the loss carried forward, if applicable. The policy on the distribution of dividends is as follows:

(1) Principle for the distribution of dividends:

The Company distributes dividends applying the robust balance principle, with normalization of the corporate financial structure and accommodation of operational growth potential as the top principle. Dividends are distributed at a ratio of no less than 10% of the earnings of the specific year.

(2) Procedure for distributing dividends:

The procedure for distributing dividends of the Company is based on the requirements of the Company Act. Each year, the Board of Directors takes into consideration the profitability of the Company and its future operational demand while preparing the proposal on distribution of earnings and the proposal is to be approved through the general shareholders' meeting before it is implemented.

(3) How dividends will be distributed:

The method of dividend distribution takes into account factors such as the Company's profitability, financial structure and the Company's future development. At least 10% of the dividends distributed in the current year is set aside as cash dividend. The Board of Directors, however, may adjust it reflective of the overall operational status and fund planning and submit it during the shareholders' meeting for a decision.

2. Distribution of dividends intended to be proposed and discussed during the current shareholders' meeting:
The Company's Board of Directors approved the distribution of cash dividend of NTD 3.28 per share on March 6, 2024.
3. Expected major changes to the dividend policy, if any: None.

(VII) Impacts of free share assignment intended through the current shareholders' meeting on the Company's operational performance and earnings per share: No share assignment is involved.

(VIII) Remuneration for employees, directors and supervisors

1. Percentage or range of remuneration for employees, directors and supervisors as stated in the Company's Articles of Incorporation:
  - (1) 10% to 15% for employees' remuneration.
  - (2) Remuneration to directors shall not exceed 2%.
2. The basis for estimating the amount of employees and directors' remuneration, the basis for calculating the number of shares to be distributed as employees' remuneration for the current period, and the accounting treatment of the discrepancy, if any, between the actual distributed amount and the estimated figure.

The amount of directors' remuneration increased by NTD 124,001 from the expenses recognized in 2023, and the amount of employees' remuneration increased by NTD 1,120,006 from the expenses recognized in 2023; the differences will be recognized as 2024 profit or loss.

3. Links to directors' performance evaluation and remuneration:

In accordance with Article 4 of the Company's "Procedures for the Distribution of Remuneration to Directors and Remuneration", the amount of remuneration distributed to all directors shall take into account the authority of each director, the number of meetings attended, the number of training hours, and other performance evaluations; and the Company shall comply with laws and regulations and the adjustment of actual operating conditions. The allocated amount has been reviewed and approved by the Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors.
4. Approval of distribution of remuneration by the Board of Directors:

On March 6, 2024, the Board of Directors approved the distribution

  - (1) Directors' remuneration: NTD 13,400,000.

2. Correlations of the up-, mid-, and down-stream of the industry

(1) Game market

On the upstream end of the game, it mainly includes game developers, development tool software vendors, etc., through the processes of programming, art, special effects, and testing, taking into account aspects such as playability, game play, and tiredness, to develop original innovative content, or to adapt existing content and remake to produce game content IP with market potential. At present, games can be played on a variety of platforms, including mobile games, console games, PC games, and cloud games. With the increase in network speed and the popularity of various devices, cross-platform games have gradually become a trend, allowing players to break the geographical restrictions and participate in the game at any time. The midstream and downstream players mainly include distributors, publishers, and operators. The distributors have the right to operate the game in specific regions by paying royalties and sharing the profit. They introduce localized operations, marketing, and customer service in accordance with local conditions to reach out to players in the local market.

(2) Commercial market

In the information security service industry, the upstream mainly includes software and hardware suppliers, specializing in R&D and manufacturing professional information-related products, and pays close attention to the latest network attacks and vulnerability updates in the market in order to develop products that meet the trends and needs, and provide other sales opportunities for agency.

The midstream industry is mainly the distributors, who focus on promoting products to the market, and the sales personnel establish the sales channels; the professional technicians such as the downstream companies provide end customers with professional services such as maintenance and technical support.

3. Various product development trends

(1) Operation of several blockbuster games while taking into account diverse markets

Gamania Group has been cultivating the game market in Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau for more than 28 years, and has built a strong and one-stop team in operations, marketing, customer service, and advertising. Since the launch of "Lineage" in Taiwan in 2000 by Gamania Group, it has not only ushered in the era of online games in Taiwan, but also released "MapleStory" in 2005 and the free-to-play game became a popular game for all. Games with richer contents and more comprehensive styles have been launched in recent years, including first-person shooter (FPS), role-playing game (RPG), real-time Strategy (RTS), action game (AG), adventure game (AVG), simulation game (SIM), sports game (SPG), puzzle game (PUZ), casual/education simulation (EDU), and others, and are run for the long run. Although there are many new game businesses in Taiwan, various classic Gamania games never fail. The heavyweight IP game “Lineage M” was introduced at the end of 2017 and set multiple records in the history of mobile games of Taiwan. Various collaborative events have been introduced with subsidiaries, too, to provide players with more diversified services. The classic PC game "MapleStory" has made great achievements in recent years. The operation team has been aiming to expand the user group by rejuvenating the brand. Since 2020, it has further upgraded the brand to become a "PC game trendsetter". In 2023, we announced that we are about to launch the 6th career change and key event. Therefore, we have launched a series of wonderful warm-up events to drive the number of players back and create a phenomenal hype. In the future, we will continue to demonstrate our robust local operation power to integrate cross-industry resources in order to fulfill the gamer’s demand for new gaming experience.

- (2) Expansion of business opportunities through e-commerce
Jollybuy Digital Technology Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of Gamania Group, is the first entertainment e-commerce platform in Taiwan that focuses on ACGN (ACGN). Through beanfun!’s shopping guide and leveraging Gamania Group’s advantageous membership base, as well as the interactive consumption model that combines e-commerce and games, we will expand into new areas of e-commerce market. MOEA selected JollyBuy Digital to help shops and individuals to run online shops under the Retailers Digital Transformation Stimulus Program by introducing more preferential plans for digital transformation to retailers in order to relieve their pressure in business operations during the pandemic. It introduced Taiwan’s first online mystery box marketing model to bring new business opportunities with brand-new buying experience. In 2023, it continued focusing on the products loved by the ACGN community as the key category, and exclusively promoted virtual and physical consumption through innovative services, driving new customer traffic.

- (3) Expanded mobile payment layout
In order to accelerate the popularity of mobile payment in Taiwan, the government actively proposes related programs. The goal is to increase the penetration rate of mobile payment to 90% by 2025. There has been significant growth in recent years, and it has exceeded 70% in 2021. GAMA PAY, a subsidiary of Gamania Group, is actively expanding cooperation with various consumption channels and implementing O2O payment applications. In recent years, it has expanded its four major supermarket territories to fully put in place, significantly strengthened the spending power of beanfun! ecosystem, and responded to the amendment to Electronic Payment Management Act to allow cross-institution fund transfers, and strives to innovate services to provide members with a convenient and diverse consumption experience; we mastered the new OMO retail business model integrating virtual and physical goods in 2022 and cultivated high-frequency usage scenarios, and actively participated in the government's TWQR program in 2023 to become the first wave in joining the crowd of convenient e-commerce services.
- (4) Accurate control of digital marketing trends
Conetter Comarketing Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of Gamania Group, provides partners with a full range of integrated marketing services. With years of solid foundation in digital media, we can deeply explore the needs of internet users, and use the Group's abundant network resources to share big data analysis, and connected with diversified media to maximize the effect of customer marketing, and successfully helped a variety of online products and services such as games, entertainment, and e-commerce to enter the Taiwan market successfully.
- (5) Information security experts in enterprise cloud services
With the rapid growth of the cloud market after the pandemic, and the development of new technologies, information security protection has become more and more important. Digicentre of Gamania Group provides three major services: cloud, information security, and custody. Its customers cover finance, retail, gaming, and payment. In 2023, the self-developed mobile phone information security protection system "appGuard" was announced to have obtained EAL2 level of Common Criteria (Common Criteria for Security Assessment), an international IT product security certification of over 50%, and actively expands into the Southeast Asian market.

- (6) Comprehensive development of pan-entertainment services
Committed to building the entrance platform of beanfun!
pan-entertainment ecosystem, combining the two-star platforms of "Comic Star" and "Literature Star" to extend to the fields of content creation, such as film, television, art, and other fields, cultivate original talents and strengthen content, and actively expand cross-industry cooperation to diversify application scenarios. The main social function "SHOW Together" is to deepen the entertainment police of the young generation, introduce a large number of new users, and increase user activity.

4. Product competition situation

(1) Game market

With the evolution of software and hardware technology, the habit of players using computers or websites to play games in the past has changed. At present, global players mainly use "mobile phones" to play games, with 49% of global players being accustomed to or frequently using mobile devices to play games. It is also the fastest growing type of gaming platform, mainly due to the popularity of the internet and the fact that almost everyone owning a phone or other mobile device, making mobile games a convenient and fast access gaming channel, and also a frequently used gaming platform for mild players. The most popular mobile game genre among global players in 2023 is "Role Playing Games" (RPG), with a global consumption amount (IAP) of USD25.5 billion, followed by "Strategy" and "Match"; "Console", the second most popular gaming platform which accounts for 29%, is usually the platform preferred by moderate or heavy players, and can carry more refined and smooth game settings.

2. Technologies or products successfully developed in the most recent year and up to the date of publication of the annual report

The Company's current R&D strategy is still based on the Group's vision of "strengthening the Group's IP ecosystem and continuing to grow the all-round entertainment ecosystem".

Diversified applications, innovation and influence:

- "fun bazaar" builds a digital collectible platform with authorized IP.
- "One-stop Integration Service of Blockchain BaaS"
- IP is applied in multiple scenarios, including the licensing of the movie IP "Marry My Dead Body" and the translation of the "Atom Boyz" manga.

Continue to invest in the enrichment of proprietary games:

- "Convenience Store Pocket Edition" is a self-made mobile game designed by the Group to simulate the operation of classic IP and expand the experience of combining virtual and physical products.
- Develop self-made mobile games of "CHIBI MARUKO CHAN Cheerful Spirit" and "CHIBI MARUKO CHAN Sleepwalking" to reproduce classic contents and expand diversified game types.

(IV) Long-term and Short-term Business Development Plans

1. Short-term business development plan

- (1) Blockbuster IP drives game operations

Launch high-quality game content based on market orientation and player needs, combined with a diversified product segmentation strategy.

- (2) Cultivating the e-commerce market in ACGN field

Jollybuy Digital Technology Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of Gamania Group, continues to strengthen the consumption model of shopping combined with game interaction, develops digital unique differential quotient models, accelerates the big data application of the Group's ecological resources, and realizes real-time personal product recommendation and continues to focus on products loved by ACGN group category, and exclusively promote physical and virtual consumption with innovative services to drive new customer traffic and further add sports activities to beanfun!.

- (3) Scenarios for mobile payment deployment

For Gama Pay's mobile payment service, Gama Pay will be prioritized for consumption by young people and gamers. The Company is actively negotiating with partners from all walks of life, developing service scope and diversity of usage scenarios, deeply exploring high-frequency payment scenarios, and continuously expanding user preferences to strengthen the implementation of beanfun! ecosystem and to create a fast, convenient and secure payment tool.

(4) Capturing the growth markets of cloud and information security
Based on the existing cloud service and multi-industry experience, in response to the market development direction and the support of the deregulation, Digicentre has deployed multi-cloud or cross-cloud services, and continues to deepen the information security-related services in order to become the information security expert of the enterprise cloud service.

(5) To expand beanfun!'s market presence and influence on the mobile lifestyle
The Group launched beanfun! App, a mobile lifestyle platform. The continuous accumulation of energy and member traffic have become a niche for the growth of beanfun!. It also attracts younger generations of users with its key function "SHOW Together", emphasizing the sense of interaction, gaming, community, etc. For entertainment experience, it also helps emerging artists and content IPs to expand the fan base and establish interaction channels to create multi-win business opportunities.

2. Long-term business development plan

Gamania Group continues to develop into a full-ecological network enterprise. In the future, in addition to deepening the diversified layout of its various businesses including games, payment, e-commerce, media, and digital commerce solutions, it will expand and invest resources in the development of its own IP and self-developed games, and introduce new AI technology and technology to facilitate the interconnection and integration of business groups, make good use of data advantages, comprehensive in-depth daily applications, overturn user experience, innovate the Group's energy, exert the Group's synergy, build an all-ecological entertainment network enterprise, and lay the momentum for sustainable growth.

Gamania is a pioneer in the gaming industry of Taiwan. It started the era of online games in 2000 and introduced the first fee collection model featuring free download of the tools in 2005. All have been trend-setting and received well among the consumers. Gamania has also been listed as one of the “Top 100 Companies for the Young Generation” for consecutive years. The Gamania Group, not only demonstrating robust capabilities in the gaming field, has also been proactively transforming itself. In 2019, it built the first local mobile life portal “beanfun!” in Taiwan that combines games, points, media, mobile payment, and e-commerce in one while trying to become the first comprehensive web-based enterprise in Taiwan.

2. Market share

(1) Game market

In Taiwan's game market, due to the popularity and speed of the internet, and the current situation of one device per person, mobile games are the most popular platform, accounting for about 60%, next is console games which accounted for 29%, and followed by PC games at 11%. In 2023, Taiwan's mobile game market is estimated to reach US$2.5 billion, making it the 6th largest mobile game market in the world. Taiwan's average revenue per user (ARPU) is US$409, which shows the high investment and participation of Taiwanese gamers in the game.

(2) Payment market

As a result of the deregulation, there are currently a total of 10 specialized branches and 20 concurrently operating branches that provide the general public with a wide range of online and offline payment channels. Under the layout of inclusive finance, several purely online banking operators in the country also offer different banking services. According to the Financial Supervisory Commission's statistics, as of December 2023, a total of 27.13 million people had used electronic payment, and the cumulative transaction amount for the year exceeded NTD 160 million.

(3) Commercial market

According to IDC statistics, the five major cloud service providers in Taiwan have more than 90% market share. Under the vigorous development of Taiwan's cloud industry, the public cloud market is expected to reach USD 2.782 billion in 2025, with a compound annual growth rate of 19% from 2021 to 2025; with the increasing demand for information security, it is estimated that the market scale of Taiwan's information security industry will reach USD 91.5 billion in 2025.

3. Future supply and demand and growth on the market

(1) Game market

In the overall global entertainment market, the game industry has the largest market scale and the fastest growth compared to films, books, and music. It is estimated that the compound growth rate from 2023 to 2027 will reach 8%. In recent years, with the development of diversified content and entertainment forms, major manufacturers have introduced new concept and the competition is fierce. Multiple types of game content are becoming increasingly popular, which helps to quickly attract traffic and create popularity for the game itself, which is highly attractive to light gamers; at the same time, for moderate to heavy gamers, role-playing, action, and strategy games are still the most popular game types, bringing players an immersive and interactive gaming experience, which is conducive to creating a highly addictive and spending game type.

In addition, with the growing popularity of cross-platform games, play scenarios can be realized anytime and anywhere. Formal developers and operators provide cross-platform games to avoid version or software compatibility issues. This also helps to improve the game information security specifications and create more secure products for players and more interesting gaming experience.

(2) Payment market

As mobile payment becomes more and more popular in Taiwan and has penetrated into the daily life of the public, the number of people and the transaction amount has been increasing year by year. The government has also launched the "TWQR" mechanism to integrate domestic mobile devices. The infrastructure of cash flow contains a large amount of real-time consumption data and trajectories.

Therefore, it is attracting the active participation of enterprises in various industries, hoping to create business opportunities from the huge data; as cross-border payment becomes a new development and cross-border travel resumes after the pandemic, e-wallet is the main method of overseas payment to expand the application scenarios and convenience of digital payment.

(3) Commercial market

According to the latest IDC research report, as of October 2023, 89% of enterprises in Taiwan were using cloud-related services in their workflows. In terms of analysis, cloud service also helps enterprises' development on sustainability issues. Multiple factors are driving the overall increase in cloud-related expenditure of enterprises.

4. Competitive niche and advantageous and disadvantageous factors for future developments and countermeasures

Gamania Group has been cultivating the game market for 28 years and is the leader of the industry's first model. In 2000, its flagship game

"Lineage" ushered in the age of online gaming in Taiwan; in 2005, MapleStory's special marketing techniques have successfully expanded the scope of players and continue to create new records; in 2014, the free server version of the classic evergreen online game "Lineage" was launched, and the number of registered members exceeded one million; the blockbuster IP mobile game "Lineage M" in 2017 According to the data of App Annie, an international research organization, "Lineage M" has been the top-selling mobile game in Taiwan for four consecutive years after its listing. All of the above are examples of Gamania's innovative and flexible strategies. Gamania thinks outside the box and takes the lead to address demand on the market and the needs of users to be a brave breakthrough pioneer. Its brand new creativity is its main competitive advantage.

We also fearlessly started a transformation to expand to the e-payment, e-commerce, media, and digital commerce sectors to actively transform into an internet business with an omni-ecosystem. The transformation includes: teaming up with international game developers to introduce heavyweight new games for gamers to enjoy unique new gaming experience; capturing the business opportunities in entertainment e-commerce through JollyBuy Digital targeted at the ACGN groups to create an interactive shopping model by integrating with games; fully penetrating into the consumption of all parts of the daily life--food, clothing, housing, transportation, education, and entertainment--with GAMA PAY to develop convenient and safe payment services to develop convenient and safe payment services closer to the consumption needs of the digital generation through O2O connection; and demonstrating influence in respective areas through the media business by mining the needs of internet users through CONETTER with rich experience in native digital foundation developed over a dozen years to quickly link up network resources to increase the share of voice for partners. In the future, Gamania Group will focus on AI, big data, and platform development, and continue to start from the game users and connect the four business groups of games, payment, commerce, and others (including e-commerce and media) to each other and gather in beanfun! to develop a comprehensive entertainment ecosystem that can leverage and assist each other to share resources.

IV. Information on Environmental Protection Expenditure

Losses suffered because of environmental pollutions in the past year up to the date the Annual Report was printed (including compensation and violations of environmental protection laws and regulations with environmental protection audit findings; the date of punishment, punishment number, article of the law or regulation violated, description of the violation and the punishment shall be specified) and disclose estimated values now and likely incurred in the future and countermeasures: None.

V. Labor-Management Relations

(I) Employee Welfare Measures

1. Employee group insurance

Group insurance: The Company arranges group insurance for all employees, with the coverage including life insurance, accident and injury insurance, hospitalization and medical care insurance, cancer insurance and medical insurance for accidents.

2. Employee healthcare program:

Employees are entitled to one health checkup at a contract hospital or health check institution.

3. Cafeteria and leisure center:

We have a cafeteria for employees to enjoy food with daily free points, and a free fitness center for employees to exercise round the clock.

4. Employee benefits:

All Gamania employees are entitled to the children's kindergarten and some subsidies, online game points for employee purchases, free parking spaces for cars and motorcycles, company merchandise, unlimited voluntary leave, three days paid travel leave, and paid birthday. Female employees are entitled to eight days of paid maternity leave, 10 weeks of paid maternity leave, and 13 days of paid paternity examination and paternity leave of employees' partners during pregnancy and childbirth. Travel subsidies, employee club subsidies, cash gifts for three major festivals and birthdays, marriage subsidies, funeral subsidies, hospitalization subsidies, childbirth subsidies, emergency relief, household cleaning subsidies, etc.

5. Employee assistance program (EPA):

Free psychological counseling (psychological counseling and finance/medical/legal services) for employees and discounts for psychological counseling for relatives within a third degree of kinship.

(II) Continuing education and training for employees

The Company offers to employees a well-equipped learning environment and a well-planned education and training framework covering orientation training for new employees, professional development training, and hierarchical training (Gamanian). Every year we organize talks and irregular seminars (Gamania Classroom, Gamania Content) supported with e-learning (Gamania Resources) to implement education and training. We also provide subsidies to employees to take external training courses.

In 2023, there were a total of 272 employee training courses, with a total of 391 company-sponsored courses, with a total of 7,062 trainees, a total of 13,339 training hours, and a total annual training expense of NTD 3,423,217.

| Classroom courses         | 48                | 127                              | 3,079                 | 10,053.5      | 1,759,199 |

(III) Retirement System and Its Implementation

1. The Company has prepared the Employee Retirement Guidelines as required by the Labor Standards Act, the Labor Pension Act and follows them.

2. Pension contribution:

From July 1, 2005, we established the Pension Contribution Regulations according to the Labor Pension Act for ROC-nationality employees. The Company sets aside 6% of the monthly salary to be the labor pension for the personal accounts of employees with the Labor Insurance Bureau in accordance with the labor pension system defined in the Labor Pension Act that employees choose to apply. The payment of the pension fund can be done on a monthly basis or in a lump sum according to the amount in the personal retirement account of each employee and the accumulated income. The employee pension reserve set aside by the Company is under the supervision of the Committee formed jointly by employees and the Company. Employees may not account for less than two-thirds of the total members of the Committee.

3. Employees may apply for retirement if:

- (1) they have worked for at least 15 years and are 55 years old or older.
- (2) they have worked for at least 25 years; or
- (3) they have worked for at least 10 years and are 60 years old or older.

For spontaneous retirement, the employee shall submit the “Employee Retirement Application Form” one month prior to the scheduled date of retirement. Once it is approved by the supervisor with decision-making power, it will be processed by the Human Resources Unit. Employees applicable under the new system who are 60 years old or older and have worked for at least 15 years may apply with the Labor Insurance Bureau and claim the pension fund on a monthly basis. For those who have not worked for 15 years, the pension fund shall be claimed in a lump sum.

(IV) Labor-management agreement: None.

(V) Respective Measures to Protect the Rights of Employees

1. Protective measures in the workplace:

- (1) Fire drills and fire prevention workshops are organized on a yearly basis targeting in particular new hires. The Fire Prevention Plan is prepared and participants are assigned tasks during the drill and used actual firefighting equipment. Meanwhile, disaster prevention is precisely enforced in order to protect the safety of employees. Fire drills and demonstrations take place from time to time as required by the Fire Department, too, to further perfect fire prevention in the workplace.

- (2) The filters of drinking fountains in the office area are replaced quarterly, and water quality testing and water tower cleaning are conducted every six months to maintain the quality of drinking water for employees and promote health.
- (3) There are monthly preventions against cockroaches, mosquitoes, and mice and also quarterly thorough preventions against vectors in office areas to ensure a clean workplace for our people.
- (4) The carpets are extensively cleaned periodically on a yearly basis in order to ensure a comfortable environment.
- (5) The air-conditioning system is cleaned up periodically on a yearly basis and the filter for the energy recovery ventilator (ERV) is replaced periodically to ensure the quality of air at work.
- (6) There are multiple janitors to take charge of cleaning up offices and restrooms regularly on a daily basis to keep the workplace comfortable.

2. Personal safety protection:

- (1) Provide comprehensive health examination for all employees every year to check the health of employees.
- (2) Engage full-time nurses to provide health care within the Company.
- (3) A cafeteria and a fitness room are established at the GAMA Island with in-house chefs and fitness coaches to provide employees with total health solutions from diet to exercise.
- (4) On-site physician health service is provided on a quarterly basis, where occupational medical specialists come to the Company to consult with employees on related questions, so that employees can ask questions if they are in doubt about their health.
- (5) Labor Insurance, National Health Insurance, group insurance, and liability insurance are provided. Additionally, travel insurance is arranged for employees on a business trip to provide employees with more bodily and health coverage when they are working hard for the Company.
- (6) The Safety and Space Management Department is set up to monitor the workplace around the clock for a safe and assuring workplace.

Security guards control access around the clock and make the rounds through floors regularly to check blind spots that cannot be picked up by surveillance cameras.

(7) The whole building is the exclusive office space for the Group and employees are given limited access that is set as needed by the Company.

(VI) Losses suffered because of labor-management disputes in the past year up to the date the Annual Report was printed (including violations of the Labor Standards Act with labor inspection findings; the date of punishment, punishment number, article of the law or regulation violated, description of the violation and the punishment shall be specified) and disclose estimated values now and likely incurred in the future and countermeasures:

The Company has been valuing employee welfare and the labor-management relations have been quite harmonious; no labor-management disputes have occurred. The same principle will continue to be followed in the future for more robust and harmonious labor-management relations, which is believed to be able to eliminate labor-management issues. Therefore, no losses have been incurred because of labor-management disputes.

VI. Cybersecurity Management

(I) Framework of cybersecurity risk management

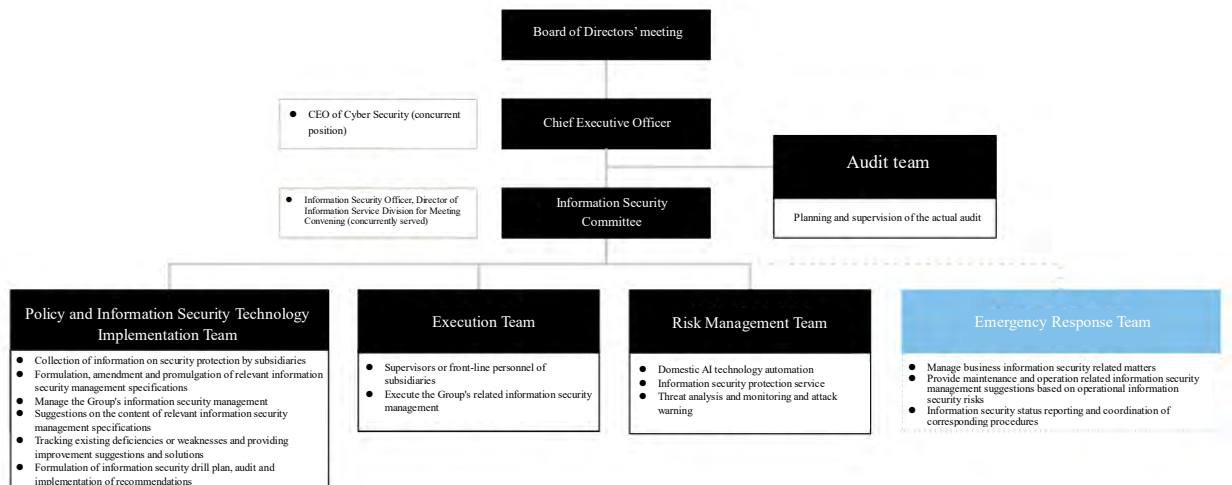

Cyber security management is a continuous process. Operational risks are analyzed and assessed through the organizational management structure. Appropriate protection mechanisms, monitoring measures, and responsive actions are then put in place to ensure that the Company operates with minimum losses and maximum income.

The Company's main requirements for information communication security management:

- The IT security risks faced by the operations are properly managed.
- Encouragement of the Company's management and operation teams to understand the impact of risk exposures.
- Achieve better business flexibility and compliance.
- Provide a rigorous decision-making and planning process.

The "Information Security Committee of the Group" is the highest organization for information and communications security. Based on the Company's operational goals and strategies, and complying with relevant government laws and regulations, the corresponding information security policies are formulated to carry out information security deployment, reinforcement, and abnormal information monitoring, emergency response, etc., to implement various information security management systems, and review the existing security management implementation through the risk management cycle to ensure the continuity of services and operations; the CEO of the Group serves as the highest supervision, and supervises organization members to implement all information security management. Actions are taken to show the full support for the information security management system. The organizational structure of the committee is as follows. The committee is composed of commissioners designated by various departments, including but not limited to the head and division-level executive-level members. The team assists in providing various information security services.

(II) Cybersecurity policy

As a full-ecosystem network enterprise, the Group complies with government laws and regulations and the requirements of the competent authorities to provide customers with a safe and convenient environment, confirm the confidentiality, completeness and availability of personal and transaction data, and ensure that the security of customer data is processed and used throughout the process.

1. To maintain the continuous operation of core service systems without interruption

Regular or irregular review and evaluation of core services with operational continuity and rapid response mechanisms; establishment of a "network DDoS protection" mechanism that actively analyzes DDoS attack packets, blocks and cleans attack traffic to mitigate its attack capacity. Avoid server capacity overload or network congestion due to DDoS attacks and ensure continuous service delivery.

2. Prevent hackers, viruses, etc. from intrusion and damage

Ensure that all information security accidents or suspected security weaknesses can be properly investigated and handled; take into account efficiency, quality, and safety in the process from software development to application service operation.

3. Preventing the leakage of sensitive data due to improper or illegal use by people

To ensure that information is not inadvertently disclosed to unauthorized third parties during the process The authentication technology not only encrypts the content of emails/confidential documents, but also integrates internal cross-site service accounts, and applies electronic signature and data encryption functions to prevent human errors, prevent unauthorized improper access, and ensure the protection of information assets.

4. Establish the Group's information security infrastructure and protect the safety of the operating environment

In addition to the necessary network/host defense framework (e.g. VPN, firewall, intrusion detection, anti-virus software, etc.), all operating businesses have also introduced a comprehensive information security mechanism, the "Global Endpoint Threat Analysis and Automatic Alarming System" to monitor network communication security.

The Group's information security policy includes corresponding specifications, procedures, operating rules or procedures, including but not limited to the following, to ensure the systematic operation of information security management.

- Organization and division of responsibility
- Personnel Safety and Education and Training
- Physical security management
- Network and Communication Security Management
- Data backup and media management
- Information Security Operation Management
- Electronic data interchange
- Data access and maintenance
- Information communication system acquisition, development, maintenance and management

- Continuity Management of Information Operations
- Information management outsourcing
- PC management
- Security management of system operation environments
- Development, maintenance, and management of system
- Information security incident handling
- Cloud-based job management

(III) Specific management plans

The management resources or specific implementation for response to risks in cyber security are as follows:

1. Internal and external issues and requirements of interested parties

Through the Group's Information Security Committee, the internal and external issues and the expectations of concerned parties are regularly or irregularly reviewed, including organizational structure, organizational culture, major changes, competent authorities, laws and regulations, standard changes, information security trends, etc. and so on.

2. Risk assessment of information assets

Annually or whenever a significant change occurs, the "Information Security Risk Assessment Model" is used to calculate the VaR for each combination of threats and vulnerabilities based on the consequences of destroying the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information assets when to identify risks, and to implement corresponding "risk treatment or improvement plans" and residual risk re-evaluation based on the risk level for effective risk management or treatment. Then, appropriate resources will be invested to reduce or transfer the items.

3. System development

Based on the nature and risk of different information operations, business operations are classified, necessary protection measures are set, and various information security management assessments are conducted on a regular basis; security inspections are conducted for information and communication service systems, website or host vulnerability scanning, and penetration testing, which requires the system to execute source code scanning security testing and complete system weakness repairs before the system goes live or when making major changes, to reduce the impact of human or natural factors on corporate operations; also, to understand and evaluate the corporate network environment and system security to verify the security level and effectiveness of the current information security protection settings.

4. Safety protection

- (1) Establish an automatic alarm mechanism for global endpoint threat analysis (EDR)
Continuously pay attention to new information security technologies, offensive and defensive trends pulse information, update defense or management mechanisms in response to the changes in time and space of information service formats, to effectively reduce and block new types of information security threats and mitigate operational risks.
- (2) Establish a cyber security threat detection and management center (SOC)
Establish the contingency and recovery procedures for abnormal information security incidents, introduce the use of defense and detection mechanisms, and use intelligent information security monitoring to uncover hidden malicious behaviors in the early stage of hacker attacks and hunt down possible threats, in order to quickly respond to information security incidents Isolate and eliminate threats, reduce the scope and extent of impact, and implement strict information and communication security protection management.
- (3) Establishment of privileged account management mechanism
Manages the privileged accounts of personal computers and important equipment in the maintenance and operation environment, and actively protects, isolates, controls, and continuously monitors the privileged accounts of virtual and physical servers, databases, network information security equipment, applications, etc., to reduce the risk of external attacks and internal malicious threats.

5. Privacy and personal information protection

Member data is subject to strict encryption procedures and protection measures. Relevant regulations are required to control the use and analysis of member data, and only authorized personnel may access the relevant data. System data access records are regularly backed up and kept; in addition, any network transmission of personal information is encrypted to ensure that the information is not illegally retrieved by third parties during the transmission process. For the protection of personal data privacy, enterprises shall follow the Group's "Personal Data Protection Policy" and related personal data security maintenance and management plans, and include the knowledge and information items of protection management in the annual information inspection focus and implementation review.

6. Business continuity

There is a disaster recovery plan for the core service system, and disaster recovery drills are carried out on a regular basis to ensure the restoration of the access rights and functional effectiveness of the IT infrastructure; restore to a normal or acceptable operating level of the enterprise, so that the core service system can continue to function and the operation of the enterprise shall not be interrupted.

7. Education and training

(1) Physical and online information security courses

Information security risk-driven education and training allows proactive defenses to precede attacks. Internal information security trainings are also organized to enhance information security awareness and awareness among information and communication management personnel and general colleagues, understand the importance of information security and various possible security risks, and improve Information security awareness among employees, and thereby change their behavior.

(2) Social engineering drills

Simulate hacker attacks and create highly simulated attack emails to send decoy letters to employees to understand the true state of employees' information security awareness and basic defense capabilities in the face of social engineering, phishing, and other behaviors; Employees who have successfully been deceived are given targeted education programs to arouse employees' instinctive responses to threats, adjust information security behaviors, and build the ability to stop, see, and listen.

(3) Information security e-newsletter

Information security e-newsletters are distributed from time to time to supplement the information security awareness propaganda, in order to enhance and strengthen the awareness of information security awareness among employees, and cultivate the habit of security inspections.

8. Supplier management

According to the Group's procurement management policy and other relevant regulations, it is necessary to select and supervise suppliers in an appropriate manner to ensure the security of the upstream and downstream supply chains, have sufficient technical capabilities and organizational measures to fully protect the privacy of personal data, and provide them in the agreed service terms. It is required not to arbitrarily provide, sell, exchange or rent private and sensitive information to other groups, individuals, private institutions or for other purposes. All supplier evaluation and selection process and weightings are recorded for future reference. Suppliers who do not meet the qualifications will be removed from the qualified supplier list and no further transactions will be conducted.

(IV) Resources for cybersecurity management

1. Information Security Committee

Every half year, the Information Security Committee is chaired by the Group's CEO to comprehensively review the information and communication security management system, and conduct a rolling review of the current management mechanism and protection measures for the operation of the information system and network services, to ensure their normal operation and continuous improvement; at the same time, operational risks, related response plans, and the annual information security project promotion progress review are assessed.

2. Introduction of information security management system ISO/IEC 27001

The certification is valid from November 2, 2023 to October 31, 2025. Meanwhile, subsidiaries of the Group are being promoted to obtain international safety certifications.

3. Information security internal audit

An internal information security self-assessment is conducted on a quarterly basis, not only on Gamania itself, but also on the various information security management measures of the Group's subsidiaries, and the Group's headquarters has formulated an information security management inspection plan, and an on-site inspection is conducted once a year and conduct inspections to ensure the implementation of the Group's information security policy goals and management mechanisms. Potential risks can also be discovered through the inspection and implementation records, and improvement suggestions are proposed in the interview summary report, which can be used as a basis for tracking and corrective implementation in the future.

4. Invest in the information security monitoring mechanism and strengthen the contingency handling capacity

Institutionalize the reporting, classification, grading, processing, and tracking of information security incidents in accordance with the information security incident handling procedures; promptly report and respond to information security incidents when they occur, and respond within the shortest time possible to ensure at the same time, introduced the mechanism of security monitoring (SOC) and endpoint protection (EDR), and invited the domestic third-party security technology consultant team and security emergency response team to grasp the security alerts and intelligence, strengthen and accelerate detection and response.

(V) Damage and potential impact caused by material cybersecurity incidents in the most recent year and up to the publication date of annual report, and countermeasures.

As of the end of 2023, we have implemented information security management. There have been no major cyber attacks or incidents, and no penalties from relevant competent authorities for information security. In addition, the use of personal data by Gamania is limited to specific purposes. No complaints or rulings from regulators were received during the year, and no legal cases or investigations were involved in this regard.

VII. Important Contracts

Up to the date of publication of the annual report, the important contracts of the Company are as follows

| Nature of contract   | Client                  | Contract start/end date                                | Main contents          | Restrictions  |

Explain the reasons for the changes in respective financial ratios over the most recent two years. (No analysis is required if the variation in increases/decreases falls short of 20%.)

1. Debt service coverage ratio: due to the decrease in pre-tax profit and loss.
2. Inventory turnover (times): due to the increase in cost of goods sold.
3. Average sales days: due to the increase in cost of sales.
4. Return on assets: due to decreased profits.
5. Return on equity: due to decreased profits.
6. Ratio of pre-tax net profit to paid-in capital: due to the decrease in pre-tax profit and loss.
7. Net profit margin: due to decreased profit.
8. Earnings per share: due to decreased profit.
9. Cash flow ratio: due to the decrease in net cash inflow from operating activities.
10. Cash reinvestment ratio: due to the decrease in net cash inflow from operating activities.
11. Cash reinvestment ratio: due to the decrease in net cash inflow from operating activities.

Explain the reasons for the changes in respective financial ratios over the most recent two years. (No analysis is required if the variation in increases/decreases falls short of 20%.)

1. Current ratio (%): due to a decrease in cash flow.
2. Quick ratio (%): due to a decrease in cash.
3. Debt service coverage ratio: due to the decrease in pre-tax profit and loss.
4. Inventory turnover: due to the decrease in operating costs.
5. Average days of sales: due to the decrease in operating costs.
6. The turnover rate of property, plant and equipment: due to the decrease in operating revenue.
7. Return on assets (%): due to decreased profits.
8. Return on equity (%): due to decreased profits.
9. EBT to paid-in capital ratio (%): due to decreased profits.
10. Net profit margin (%): due to decreased profit.
11. Earnings per share: due to decreased profit.
12. Cash flow ratio (%): due to the decrease in net cash inflow from operating activities.
13. Cash reinvestment ratio (%): due to the decrease in net cash inflow from operating activities.

Note*: The calculation formula is provided below:

1. Financial structure

- (1) Liability-to-asset ratio = total liabilities/ total assets
- (2) Long-term funds to fixed assets ratio = (net value of shareholder equity + long-term liabilities)/ net value of fixed assets.

2. Solvency

- (1) Current ratio = Current assets/ Current liabilities.
- (2) Quick ratio = (Current assets - Inventory - Advance payments)/Current liabilities.
- (3) Interest protection multiples = Income tax and net profit before interest/Interest expenditure of current term

3. Management ability

- (1) Receivable (including accounts receivable and receivable notes from operations) turnover ratio = Net sales value/ mean balance of receivables of each term (including accounts receivable and receivable notes from operations).
- (2) Average collection days = 365/Receivable turnover ratio
- (3) Inventory turnover ratio = Sales cost/mean inventory
- (4) Payable (including accounts payable and payable notes from operations) turnover ratio = Net sales value/ mean balance of payables of each term (including accounts payable and payable notes from operations).
- (5) Average sales days = 365/Inventory turnover ratio
- (6) Fixed asset turnover ratio = Net sales value/Mean net value of fixed assets
- (7) Total asset turnover ratio = Net sales value/Mean total assets

4. Profitability

- (1) Return on assets = [after-tax gains and losses + interest × (1-tax rate)]/gross assets on average
- (2) Return on shareholder equity = after-tax profit or loss/mean net value of shareholder equity
- (3) Net profit rate = After-tax profits and losses/Net sales value
- (4) Earnings per share = (After-tax net profit - Preferred stock dividend)/Weighted average number of shares already issued

5. Cash flow

- (1) Cash flow ratio = Net cash flow from operating activities/Current liabilities
- (2) Net cash flow adequacy ratio = Net cash flow of operating activities over the past five years/(capital expenditure + increase in inventory + cash dividend) over the past five years.
- (3) Cash reinvestment ratio = (net cash flow from operating activities - cash dividends)/(gross value of fixed assets + long-term investment + other assets + working capital)

6. Leverage:

- (1) Operating leverage = (Net operating income - Change in operating costs and expenses)/Operating profit.
- (2) Financial leverage = operating income / (operating income - interest expense).

III. Supervisor or Audit Committee's review report on the 2023 annual financial reports

Audit Committee's Audit Report

The 2023 annual business report and financial statements (including individual and consolidated financial statements) have been prepared by the Board of Directors for proposal. The financial statements have been audited by CPA Yan Yu-Fang and CPA Lin Yung-Chi of PricewaterhouseCoopers Taiwan, and have issued an independent auditor's report. The above-mentioned Business Report, Financial Statements, and Proposal on Distribution of Earnings have been reviewed by the Audit Committee and no inconsistency has been found. Therefore, according to applicable requirements of the Securities and Exchange Act and the Company Act, it is reported as above. Your review and approval are cordially requested.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Gamania Digital Entertainment Co., Ltd. and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the audit reports of other auditors (refer to the other matter section), the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Financial Statement Audit and Attestation Engagements of Certified Public Accountants and Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Group's 2023 consolidated financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Estimation of revenue recognition of online and mobile games revenue

Description

Refer to Note 4(27) for accounting policies on revenue recognition, Note 5(2) for the critical accounting estimates and assumptions and Note 6(22) for the details of accounting applied on revenue recognition.

Gamania Digital Entertainment Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) and the subsidiary, Gamania Digital Entertainment (H.K.) Co., Ltd., are primarily engaged in providing online and mobile game services. The game players purchase game stored-value cards or value-added to play the game or exchange for virtual items. The Company and the subsidiary, Gamania Digital Entertainment (H.K.) Co., Ltd., recognise receipt of payments for game stored-value card purchases or value-added by players as “contract liability”, and recognises revenue over the period of the service or the estimated delivery period of the virtual items when the game stored-value cards or value-added is used for the purchase of service or virtual items, respectively.

The estimation of the virtual items delivery period, which is the same as the expected users’ relationship period, is based on historical data on item consumption and item transfer by management. The Company has implemented processes and controls to develop and periodically review these estimates. The information of stored-value and value-added was collected by computer system. Given that the Company has many transactions of game revenue and the deferral of virtual items and the estimation of users’ relationship period involve management’s subjective judgment, we consider the estimation of recognition of online and mobile games revenue and contract liability as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures on the above key audit matter:

- A. Assessed and tested the relevant internal controls over revenue recognition for online and mobile games revenue.
- B. Tested on a sample basis the consumption information generated from the Company’s data collection systems and verified against the consumption report provided by the Company’s accountant.
- C. Tested on a sample basis the virtual items information generated from the Company’s data collection systems and verified against the contract liability as shown in the trial balance sheet provided by the Company’s accountant.

- D. Tested on a sample basis the expected users' relationship periods as reflected in the data collection systems, and compared with expected consumption based on the Company's accounting policy.

Impairment assessment of goodwill

Description

Refer to Notes 4(18) and (19) for accounting policies on goodwill impairment, Notes 6(12) and (14) for details of goodwill, and Note 5(2) for the uncertainty of accounting estimates and assumptions in relation to goodwill.

Goodwill arising from the merger of the Company with NOWnews Network Co., Ltd. and Digicentre Company Limited is material to the financial statements and the projected future cash flows of the expected recoverable amount under the valuation model adopted in the impairment assessment of goodwill was estimated based on management's subjective judgement and expectation on the future operations. Thus, we consider the assessment of goodwill impairment a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures relative to the above key audit matter:

- A. Assessed whether the valuation models adopted by the Group are reasonable for the industry, environment and the valued assets of the Group;
- B. Confirmed whether the expected future cash flows adopted in the valuation model are in agreement with the budget provided by the cash-generating units;
- C. Assessed the appointed external appraisers in conformity with the rules of qualification and independence, and evaluated the reasonableness of material assumptions, such as expected growth rates, operating profit margin and discount rates, by:
- (a) Reviewing the appraisal method and calculation formulas used by the independent appraisal expert.
  - (b) Comparing the expected growth rate and operating profit margin with historical data;
  - (c) Reviewing the discount rate and comparing similar return on similar assets ratio in the market.
- D. Compared the recoverable value and book value of each cash-generating unit in order to assess the reasonableness of the book value.

Other matter – Reference to the audits of other auditors

As described in Note 4(3), we did not audit the financial statements of certain subsidiaries, which were audited by other auditors. Therefore, our opinion expressed herein, insofar as it relates to the amounts included in the consolidated financial statements and the information disclosed in Note 13 relative to these investments, is based solely on the audit reports of other auditors. Total assets of the subsidiaries amounted to NT$2,428,046 thousand and NT$2,157,183 thousand, constituting 25% and 21% of consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and operating revenue was NT$2,517,590 thousand and NT$2,825,788 thousand, constituting 26% and 25% of consolidated total operating revenue for the years then ended, respectively.

Other matter – Parent company only financial reports

We have audited and expressed an unqualified opinion with other matter section on the parent company only financial statements of Gamania Digital Entertainment Co., Ltd. as at and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

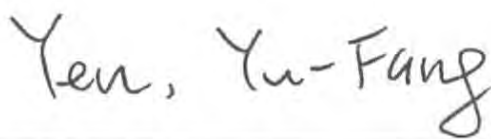

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

GAMANIA DIGITAL ENTERTAINMENT CO., LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022
(Expressed in thousands of New Taiwan dollars, except as otherwise indicated)

1. HISTORY AND ORGANISATION

Gamania Digital Entertainment Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) was incorporated as a company limited by shares under the provisions of the Company Law of the Republic of China (R.O.C.). The Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred herein as the “Group”) are primarily engaged in software services of on-line game and sales of related merchandises.

2. THE DATE OF AUTHORISATION FOR ISSUANCE OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND PROCEDURES FOR AUTHORISATION

These consolidated financial statements were authorised for issuance by the Board of Directors on March 6, 2024.

3. APPLICATION OF NEW STANDARDS, AMENDMENTS AND INTERPRETATIONS

(1) Effect of the adoption of new issuances of or amendments to International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS®”) Accounting Standards that came into effect as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission (“FSC”)

New standards, interpretations and amendments endorsed by the FSC and became effective from 2023 are as follows:

| New Standards, Interpretations and Amendments  | Effective date byInternational AccountingStandards Board |
|--|--|
| Amendments to IAS 1, ‘Disclosure of accounting policies’   | January 1, 2023  |

| Amendments to IAS 21, 'Lack of exchangeability'   | January 1, 2025  |

The above standards and interpretations have no significant impact to the Group's financial condition and financial performance based on the Group's assessment.

4. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

(1) Compliance statement

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC® Interpretations, and SIC® Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the FSC (collectively referred herein as the "IFRSs").

(2) Basis of preparation

A. Except for the following items, the consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention:

- (a) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.
  - (b) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.
  - (c) Defined benefit liabilities recognised based on the net amount of pension fund assets less present value of defined benefit obligation.
- B. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 5.

(3) Basis of consolidation

A. Basis for preparation of consolidated financial statements:

- (a) All subsidiaries are included in the Group's consolidated financial statements. Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Consolidation of subsidiaries begins from the date the Group obtains control of the subsidiaries and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiaries.
- (b) Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains or losses on transactions between companies within the Group are eliminated.
- (c) Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income is attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.
- (d) Changes in a parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in the parent losing control of the subsidiary (transactions with non-controlling interests) are accounted for as equity transactions, i.e. transactions with owners in their capacity as owners. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity.
- (e) When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, the Group remeasures any investment retained in the former subsidiary at its fair value. That fair value is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset or the cost on initial recognition of the associate or joint venture. Any difference between fair value and carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary are reclassified to profit or loss on the same basis as would be required if the related assets or liabilities were disposed of. That is, when the Group loses control of a subsidiary, all gains or losses previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary should be reclassified from equity to profit or loss, if such gains or losses would be reclassified to profit or loss when the related assets or liabilities are disposed of.

(4) Foreign currency translation

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the company operates (the “functional currency”). The consolidated financial statements are presented in New Taiwan Dollars, which is the Group's functional and presentation currency.

A. Foreign currency transactions and balances

- (a) Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are remeasured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.
- (b) Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the period end are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising upon re-translation at the balance sheet date are recognised in profit or loss.
- (c) Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through profit or loss are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognised in profit or loss. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through other comprehensive income are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognised in other comprehensive income. However, non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are not measured at fair value are translated using the historical exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions.
- (d) All other foreign exchange gains and losses based on the nature of those transactions are presented in the statement of comprehensive income within 'other gains and losses'.

B. Translation of foreign operations

- (a) The operating results and financial position of all the Group entities and associates that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:
  - i. Assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing exchange rate at the date of that balance sheet;
  - ii. Income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates of that year; and
  - iii. All resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.
- (b) When the foreign operation partially disposed of or sold is an associate, exchange differences that were recorded in other comprehensive income are proportionately reclassified to profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on sale. In addition, if the Group retains partial interest in the former foreign associate after losing significant influence over the former foreign associate, such transactions should be accounted for as disposal of all interest in these foreign operations.
- (c) When the foreign operation partially disposed of or sold is a subsidiary, cumulative exchange differences that were recorded in other comprehensive income are proportionately transferred to the non-controlling interest in this foreign operation. In addition, when the Group retains partial interest in the former foreign subsidiary after losing control of the former foreign subsidiary, such transactions should be accounted for as disposal of all interest in the foreign operations.

(5) Classification of current and non-current items

- A. Assets that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current assets; otherwise they are classified as non-current assets:
- (a) Assets arising from operating activities that are expected to be realised, or are intended to be sold or consumed within the normal operating cycle;
  - (b) Assets held mainly for trading purposes;
  - (c) Assets that are expected to be realised within twelve months from the balance sheet date;
  - (d) Cash and cash equivalents, excluding restricted cash and cash equivalents and those that are to be exchanged or used to settle liabilities more than twelve months after the balance sheet date.
- B. Liabilities that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current liabilities; otherwise they are classified as non-current liabilities:
- (a) Liabilities that are expected to be settled within the normal operating cycle;
  - (b) Liabilities arising mainly from trading activities;
  - (c) Liabilities that are to be settled within twelve months from the balance sheet date;
  - (d) Liabilities for which the repayment date cannot be extended unconditionally to more than twelve months after the balance sheet date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

(6) Cash equivalents

Cash equivalents refer to short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Time deposits that meet the definition above and are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments in operations are classified as cash equivalents.

(7) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

- A. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets that are not measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income.
- B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised and derecognised using trade date accounting.
- C. At initial recognition, the Group measures the financial assets at fair value and recognises the transaction costs in profit or loss. The Group subsequently measures the financial assets at fair value, and recognises the gain or loss in profit or loss.

(8) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

- A. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income comprise equity securities which are not held for trading, and for which the Group has made an irrevocable election at initial recognition to recognise changes in fair value in other comprehensive income.

- B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognised and derecognised using trade date accounting.
- C. They are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs. These financial assets are subsequently remeasured and stated at fair value. The changes in fair value of equity investments that were recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to retained earnings and are not reclassified to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends are recognised as revenue when the right to receive payment is established, future economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(9) Financial assets at amortised cost

The Group's time deposits which do not fall under cash equivalents are those with a short maturity period and are measured at initial investment amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(10) Accounts and notes receivable

- A. Accounts and notes receivable entitle the Group a legal right to receive consideration in exchange for transferred goods or rendered services.
- B. The short-term accounts and notes receivable without bearing interest are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(11) Impairment of financial assets

For receivables that have a significant financing component, at each reporting date, the Group recognises the impairment provision for 12 months expected credit losses if there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or recognises the impairment provision for the lifetime expected credit losses (ECLs) if such credit risk has increased since initial recognition after taking into consideration all reasonable and verifiable information that includes forecasts. On the other hand, for receivables that do not contain a significant financing component, the Group recognises the impairment provision for lifetime ECLs.

(12) Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset when one of the following conditions is met:

- A. The contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset expire.
- B. The contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.
- C. The contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have been transferred and, the Group has not retained control of the financial asset.

(13) Leasing arrangements (lessor) - operating leases

Lease income from an operating lease (net of any incentives given to the lessee) is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(14) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The original costs are the cost to obtain the assets. Cost is determined using the weighted-average method. The item by item approach is used in applying the lower of cost and net realizable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the applicable variable selling expenses.

(15) Investments accounted for under the equity method / associates

- A. Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control. In general, it is presumed that the investor has significant influence, if an investor holds, directly or indirectly 20 percent or more of the voting power of the investee. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method and are initially recognised at cost.
- B. The Group's share of its associates' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognised in profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income. When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred legal or/constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.
- C. When changes in an associate's equity do not arise from profit or loss or other comprehensive income of the associate and such changes do not affect the Group's ownership percentage of the associate, the Group recognises change in ownership interests in the associate in 'capital surplus' in proportion to its ownership.
- D. Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associates. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred.
- E. In the case that an associate issues new shares and the Group does not subscribe or acquire new shares proportionately, which results in a change in the Group's ownership percentage of the associate but maintains significant influence on the associate, then 'capital surplus' and 'investments accounted for under the equity method' shall be adjusted for the increase or decrease of its share of equity interest.
- F. When the Group disposes its investment in an associate and loses significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate are reclassified to profit or loss, on the same basis as would be required if the relevant assets or liabilities were disposed of. If it retains significant influence over this associate, then the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate are reclassified to profit or loss proportionately in accordance with the aforementioned approach.
- G. When the Group disposes its investment in an associate and loses significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognised as capital surplus in relation to the associate are transferred to profit or loss. If it retains significant influence over this associate, then the amounts previously recognised as capital surplus in relation to the associate are transferred to profit or loss proportionately.

(16) Property, plant and equipment

- A. Property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost.
- B. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.
- C. Land is not depreciated. Other property, plant and equipment apply cost model and are depreciated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost over their estimated useful lives. Each part of an item of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item must be depreciated separately.
- D. The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are evaluated, and adjusted if appropriate, at each financial year-end. If expectations for the assets' residual values and useful lives differ from previous estimates or the patterns of consumption of the assets' future economic benefits embodied in the assets have changed significantly, any change is accounted for as a change in estimate under IAS 8, 'Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors', from the date of the change. The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

|--------------------------|------------|
| Buildings                | 3~51 years |
| Machinery and equipment  | 2~8 years  |
| Transportation equipment | 5 years    |
| Office equipment         | 2~8 years  |
| Leasehold improvement    | 4~5 years  |
| Other equipment          | 4~8 years  |

(17) Leasing arrangements (lessee) - right-of-use assets/lease liabilities

- A. Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group. For short-term leases or leases of low-value assets, lease payments are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.
- B. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the remaining lease payments at the commencement date, discounted using the incremental borrowing interest rate. Lease payments are fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable. The Group subsequently measures the lease liability at amortised cost using the interest method and recognises interest expense over the lease term. The lease liability is remeasured and the amount of remeasurement is recognised as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset when there are changes in the lease term or lease payments and such changes do not arise from contract modifications.

- C. At the commencement date, the right-of-use asset is stated at cost and the cost is comprised of the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability. The right-of-use asset is measured subsequently using the cost model and is depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the asset's useful life or the end of the lease term. When the lease liability is remeasured, the amount of remeasurement is recognised as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

(18) Intangible assets

A. Licence fees

Licence fees were prepaid and may be paid in the future for operating online game software, are stated at cost and amortised based on the period of the contract or reversed in proportion of operating revenue after online games launching.

B. Software

Costs of software are stated at cost and amortised under the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of 1-5 years.

C. Trademark right

Trademark right is stated at fair value at the acquisition date and regarded as having an indefinite useful life as it was assessed to generate continuous net cash inflow in the foreseeable future. Trademark right is not amortised, but is tested annually for impairment.

D. Customer relationships

Customer relationships which are intangible assets acquired during the business combinations are stated at fair value at the acquisition date and are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 8~12 years.

E. Other intangible assets

- (a) Copyrights which are intangible assets acquired during the business combinations are stated at fair value at the acquisition date and are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 15 years.
- (b) Software independent development which is intangible assets acquired during the business combinations are stated at fair value at the acquisition date and are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 3 years.
- (c) Obtaining the relevant licence for the game, distribution business recognised as intangible assets and special technology with estimated useful life are stated at acquisition and occurred cost date and are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 3~10 years.

F. Goodwill

Goodwill arises in a business combination accounted for by applying the acquisition method. Goodwill is recognised in the amount of acquisition price including direct costs of business combination less the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired. The measurement date of acquisition price must not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

(19) Impairment of non-financial assets

- A. The Group assesses at each balance sheet date the recoverable amounts of those assets in accordance with IAS 36 'Impairment of assets' where there is an indication that they are impaired. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell or value in use. Except for goodwill, when the circumstances or reasons for recognizing impairment loss for an asset in prior years no longer exist or diminish, the impairment loss is reversed. The increased carrying amount due to reversal should not be more than what the depreciated or amortised historical cost would have been if the impairment had not been recognised.
- B. The recoverable amounts of goodwill and intangible assets that have not definite useful life and have not yet been available for use shall be evaluated periodically. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment loss of goodwill previously recognised in profit or loss shall not be reversed in the following years.
- C. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that is/are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

(20) Borrowings

It refers to long-term and short-term borrowings from the bank. Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

(21) Notes and accounts payable

Notes and accounts payable are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Short-term notes and accounts payable which are non-interest bearing are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(22) Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

(23) Employee benefits

A. Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in respect of service rendered by employees in a period and should be recognised as expense in that period when the employees render service.

B. Pensions

(a) Defined contribution plan

For defined contribution plan, the contributions are recognised as pension expense when they are due on an accrual basis. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent of a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments.

(b) Defined benefit plan

i. Net obligation under a defined benefit plan is defined as the present value of an amount of pension benefits that employees will receive on retirement for their services with the Group in current period or prior periods. The liability recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit pension plan is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date less the fair value of plan assets. The net defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method. The rate used to discount is determined by using interest rates of high-quality corporate bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid, and that have terms to maturity approximating to the terms of the related pension liability; when there is no deep market in high-quality corporate bonds, the Group uses interest rates of government bonds (at the balance sheet date) instead.

ii. Remeasurements arising on defined benefit plan are recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise and are recorded as retained earnings.

C. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are employee benefits provided in exchange for the termination of employment as a result from either the Group's decision to terminate an employee's employment before the normal retirement date, or an employee's decision to accept an offer of redundancy benefits in exchange for the termination of employment. The Group recognises expense when it can no longer withdraw an offer of termination benefits or it recognises related restructuring costs, whichever is earlier. Benefits that are expected to be due more than 12 months after balance sheet date shall be discounted to their present value.

D. Employees' compensation and directors' remuneration

Employees' compensation and directors' remuneration are recognised as expense and liability, provided that such recognition is required under legal or constructive obligation and those amounts can be reliably estimated. Any difference between the resolved amounts and the subsequently actual distributed amounts is accounted for as changes in estimates.

(24) Income tax

- A. The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or items recognised directly in equity, in which cases the tax is recognised in other comprehensive income or equity.
- B. The current income tax expense is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in accordance with applicable tax regulations. It establishes provisions where appropriate based on the amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities. An additional tax is levied on the unappropriated retained earnings and is recorded as income tax expense in the year the stockholders resolve to retain the earnings.
- C. Deferred tax is recognised, using the balance sheet liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated balance sheet. However, the deferred tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.
- D. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised. At each balance sheet date, unrecognised and recognised deferred tax assets are reassessed.
- E. Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset on the balance sheet when the entity has the legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and they are levied by the same taxation authority on either the same entity or different entities that intend to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

F. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the tax credits can be utilised.

(25) Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or stock options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

(26) Dividends

Dividends are recorded in the Company's financial statements in the period in which they are approved by the Company's shareholders. Cash dividends are recorded as liabilities; stock dividends are recorded as stock dividends to be distributed and are reclassified to ordinary shares on the effective date of new shares issuance.

(27) Revenue recognition

A. Online and mobile games revenue

- (a) The Group is engaged in online games and mobile phone games and sales of peripheral products of the games. Sales are recognised when control of the products has transferred, that is, the customer has control of the product and obtained most residual benefit, and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer acceptance of the products.
- (b) Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable taking into account business tax, returns, rebates and discounts for the sale of goods based on the contract price.
- (c) The Group recognises the collections of payments for game stored-value card purchases or value-added by players as contract liabilities, and amortises those amounts as revenue over the expected users' relationship period or the estimated delivery period of the virtual items, when they are actually used.
- (d) The Group recognised accounts receivable when the control of product has been transferred and has the right to collect price without condition. The accounts receivable has usually a short-term period and does not contain significant financial component. However, for online games and mobile phone games, the Group collects the price in advance upon sale, and recognises the contract liability.

B. Service revenue

The Group recognises customer service revenue, advertisement revenue, E-commerce service revenue, cloud and information security service revenue when the individual obligation is fulfilled at a point in time or fulfilled over time. Service revenue is based on contract price. The sales of services is based on the price stated in the contract. When the contract consideration includes variable consideration, the Group recognises the minimum amount that is highly likely to not reverse in the future period.

C. Revenue from stored-values

The Group is engaged in the sale of game stored-value cards. The purpose of selling game stored-value cards to players is to offer a tool that allows them to purchase game services from the Group or another party. When a player purchases a game from another party for which the Group has no control over the service provided, then the Group merely acts as an intermediary that facilitates the transaction; the game service is entirely provided by another party. The Group recognises payments received less amounts paid to another party as revenue.

D. Sales revenue

The Group sell agent products and information security equipment. Sales revenue recognized when the products transfer control to customer, that is, when the product is delivered to the customers and the Group has no outstanding obligations that may affect the customer's acceptance of the product. When the product is shipped to the designated location, the risk of obsolescence and loss has been transferred to the customer and the customer accepts the product in accordance with the sales contract or there is objective evidence that all acceptance criteria have been met, the delivery of the goods will happen. Account receivables are recognised when the goods are delivered to the customer because the group has the unconditional right for consideration which can be collected from the customer.

(28) Business combinations

- A. The Group uses the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for an acquisition is measured as the fair value of the assets transferred, liabilities incurred or assumed and equity instruments issued at the acquisition date, plus the fair value of any assets and liabilities resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. All acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. For each business combination, the Group measures at the acquisition date components of non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to the proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation at either fair value or the present ownership instruments' proportionate share in the recognized amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other non-controlling interests should be measured at the acquisition-date fair value.
- B. The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed is recorded as goodwill at the acquisition date. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest in the acquiree recognized and the fair value of previously held equity interest in the acquiree is less than the fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss on the acquisition date.

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ESTIMATES AND KEY SOURCES OF ASSUMPTION UNCERTAINTY

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make critical judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies and make critical assumptions and estimates concerning future events. Assumptions and estimates may differ from the actual results and are continually evaluated and adjusted based on historical experience and other factors. Such assumptions and estimates have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, and the related information is addressed below:

(1) Critical judgments in applying the Group's accounting policies

Revenue recognition on a net/gross basis

The Group determines whether the nature of its performance obligation is to provide the specified goods or services itself (i.e. the Group is a principal) or to arrange for the other party to provide those goods or services (i.e. the Group is an agent) based on the transaction model and its economic substance. The Group is a principal if it controls a promised good or service before it transfers the good or service to a customer. The Group recognises revenue at gross amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services transferred. The Group is an agent if its performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of goods or services by another party. The Group recognises revenue at the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the other party to provide its goods or services.

Indicators that the Group controls the good or service before it is provided to a customer include the following:

- A. The Group is primarily responsible for the provision of goods or services.
- B. The Group assumes the inventory risk before transferring the specified goods or services to the customer or after transferring control of the goods or services to the customer.
- C. The Group has discretion in establishing prices for the goods or services.

(2) Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

A. Revenue recognition

The Group recognises the collections of payments for game stored-value card purchases or value-added by players as contract liabilities, and amortises those amounts as revenue over expected users' relationship periods or the estimated delivery period of the virtual items, when they are actually used. The Group estimates the deferred amount and delivery period based on operating history and other known factors. Given that the Group has extensive list of virtual items spread across thousands of users and the estimation of delivery period for virtual items may be complex, the Group assesses the reasonableness of the estimation periodically. Please refer to Note 6(22) for the information on revenue recognition.

B. Impairment assessment of licence fees

The impairment assessment of licence fees depend on the Group's subjective judgement. The recoverable amount is determined based on estimated online game revenue arising from expected game points used by players and budget expenditures.

C. Impairment assessment of goodwill

The impairment assessment of goodwill relies on the Group's subjective judgement, including identifying cash-generating units, allocating assets and liabilities as well as goodwill to related cash-generating units, and determining the recoverable amounts of related cash-generating units. Please refer to Note 6(14) for the information on goodwill impairment.

6. DETAILS OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTS

(1) Cash and cash equivalents

Note 1: The Group has significant control as it has obtained majority of the board seats and, accordingly, the investment was accounted for under equity method.

Note 2: All impairment losses derived from equity investments have been recognised based on the Company's assessment.

Note 3: On June 30, 2023, the Group acquired a 70% equity interest in WalkerMedia, which became a subsidiary of the Group. The related information on business combination is provided in Note 6(32).

B. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the carrying amount of the Group's individually immaterial associates amounted to $116,990 and $135,404, respectively. The Group's share of the operating results are summarised below:

C. There is no price in open market for associates of the Group, therefore, no fair value is applicable.

D. The Group is the single largest shareholder of Jsdway with a 37.18% equity interest. Given that the remaining 62.82% equity interest in Jsdway is held by other few investors and the number of votes of minority voting rights holders has exceeded the Group's votes as they acted together, this indicates that the Group has no current ability to direct the relevant activities of Jsdway. Accordingly, the Group has no control, but only has significant influence, over the investee.

A. The Group's property, plant and equipment are mainly owner-occupied.

B. No borrowing cost was capitalised as part of property, plant and equipment.

C. Information about the property, plant and equipment that were pledged to others as collateral is provided in Note 8.

(10) Leasing arrangements - lessee

- A. The Group leases various assets including buildings, parking lot, machinery and business vehicles. Rental contracts are typically made for periods of 1 to 5 years. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose covenants, but leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.
- B. Short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less comprise buildings and multifunction printers. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, payments of lease commitments for short-term leases amounted to $6,258 and $10,376, respectively.
- C. The carrying amounts of right-of-use assets and the depreciation charge are as follows:

- F. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Group's total cash outflow for leases were $42,077 and $44,258, respectively.

(11) Leasing arrangements - lessor

A. The Group leases various assets including buildings. Rental contracts are typically made for periods of 1 to 5 years. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. To protect the lessor's ownership rights on the leased assets, leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

B. Gain arising from operating lease agreements for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 is as follows:

B. The Group acquired registered trademark from the acquisition of NOWnews. As the trademark is assessed to have indefinite useful life, it shall not be amortised but shall be tested for impairment annually.

C. Goodwill and trademark with an indefinite useful life are allocated to the Group's cash-generating units identified according to operating segment as follows:

Note: On June 30, 2023, the Group acquired a 70% equity interest in WalkerMedia, which became a subsidiary of the Group. The related information on business combination is provided in Note 6(32).

Acquisition prices for business combination are calculated based on the price of acquisition and related direct costs. The amount of goodwill recognised is the difference of the acquisition price less the net fair value of identifiable assets acquired. The allocation period of acquisition price may not exceed one year after the acquisition.

D. The Group's goodwill acquired in a business combination consisting of expected operating revenue growth from acquired companies and benefits from its potential customer relations. In accordance with IAS 36, goodwill acquired from business combination shall be tested for impairment every year and when there is any indication that it might have been impaired. The impairment testing on goodwill as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 are as follows:

- (a) For the impairment testing of goodwill, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination. Each company may be a cash-generating unit which can generate independent cash flows. Thus, the impairment of goodwill is calculated based on the difference between the recoverable amount and carrying amount of net assets of each company.
- (b) The Group used value-in-use calculated by external appraiser to be the recoverable amount of subsidiaries, NOWnews and Digicentre, at December 31, 2023 and 2022. As the recoverable amount of NOWnews and Digicentre was higher than the carrying amount at December 31, 2023 and 2022, goodwill was not impaired. The main assumptions used in calculating value-in-use by external appraiser are set out below:

|               | December 31, 2023 | December 31, 2022 |
|---------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| Growth rate   | 2.8%~4.7%                | 2.4%~6.4%                |
| Discount rate | 10.8%~13.3%              | 14.0%~14.2%              |

- (c) As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, aside from NOWnews and Digicentre, the recoverable amounts of cash-generating units were calculated based on value-in-use. Because the recoverable amounts exceeded the carrying amount, goodwill was not impaired. The key assumptions used for value-in-use calculations take into consideration operating profit margin, growth rate and discount rate.
- (d) Management determined the budgeted operating profit margin based on past performance and their expectations of market development. The weighted average growth rates are consistent with the projection in industry reports. The discount rates were pre-tax and reflected specific risks relating to the relevant operating segments.

(14) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group recognised impairment loss of $0 and $93,163 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Details of such loss are as follows:

|   | Recognised in profit or loss |                  |
|---|------------------------------|------------------|

|   | $ -                  | $ 93,163 |

A. The Group implemented impairment testing on the recoverable amount of goodwill at the financial year-end date. Information on the determination of the recoverable amount is provided in Note 6(12).

B. The Group assesses the recoverable amounts of agency rights and other intangible assets annually, based on the expected future economic benefits arising from the use of the points generated from income and expenses and the expected future economic benefits. Due to the recoverable amounts being lower than the carrying amounts, impairment losses are recognized.

Note: The payment obligations of certain game license are to pay game developers license fees if the revenue reaches a certain amount within three years after the signing of the contract. The Group recognised the license fees and payable on intangible assets after assessing that the payment obligation is highly realisable on December 31 2023.

(17) Pensions

A. Defined benefit plan

- (a) The Company has a defined benefit pension plan in accordance with the Labor Standards Act, covering all regular employees' service years prior to the enforcement of the Labor Pension Act on July 1, 2005 and service years thereafter of employees who chose to continue to be subject to the pension mechanism under the Labor Standards Act. Under the defined benefit pension plan, two units are accrued for each year of service for the first 15 years and one unit for each additional year thereafter, subject to a maximum of 45 units. Pension benefits are based on the number of units accrued and the average monthly salaries and wages of the last 6 months prior to retirement. The Company contributes monthly an amount equal to 2% of the employees' monthly salaries and wages to the retirement fund deposited with Bank of Taiwan, the trustee, under the name of the independent retirement fund committee. Also, the Company would assess the balance in the aforementioned labor pension reserve account by December 31, every year. If the account balance is insufficient to pay the pension calculated by the aforementioned method to the employees expected to qualify for retirement in the following year, the Company will make contribution for the deficit before March in the following year.
- (b) The pension costs under the defined benefit pension plan of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 were $949 and $792, respectively.
- (c) The amounts recognised in the balance sheet are as follows:

(e) The Bank of Taiwan was commissioned to manage the Fund of the Company's defined benefit pension plan in accordance with the Fund's annual investment and utilisation plan and the "Regulations for Revenues, Expenditures, Safeguard and Utilisation of the Labor Retirement Fund" (Article 6: The scope of utilisation for the Fund includes deposit in domestic or foreign financial institutions, investment in domestic or foreign listed, over-the-counter, or private placement equity securities, investment in domestic or foreign real estate securitization products, etc.). With regard to the utilisation of the Fund, its minimum earnings in the annual distributions on the final financial statements shall be no less than the earnings attainable from the amounts accrued from two-year time deposits with the interest rates offered by local banks. If the earnings is less than aforementioned rates, government shall make payment for the deficit after being authorised by the Regulator. The Company has no right to participate in managing and operating that fund and hence the Company is unable to disclose the classification of plan assets fair value in accordance with IAS 19 paragraph 142. The composition of fair value of plan assets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 is given in the Annual Labor Retirement Fund Utilisation Report announced by the government.

(f) The principal actuarial assumptions used were as follows:

|                         | Years ended December 31, |       |
|-------------------------|--------------------------|-------|
|                         | 2023                     | 2022  |
| Discount rate           | 1.20%                    | 1.40% |
| Future salary increases | 3.50%                    | 3.50% |

Assumptions regarding future mortality experience are set based on actuarial advice in accordance with published statistics and experience in each territory.

Because the main actuarial assumption changed, the present value of defined benefit obligation is affected. The analysis was as follows:

|   | Discount rate     |                   | Future salary increases |                   |
|---|-------------------|-------------------|-------------------------|-------------------|

| Effect on present value of defined benefit obligation | ($ 1,734)        | $ 1,792          | $ 1,571                | ($ 1,531)        |
| December 31, 2022                                     |                   |                   |                         |                   |
| Effect on present value of defined benefit obligation | ($ 1,849)        | $ 1,918          | $ 1,706                | ($ 1,657)        |

The sensitivity analysis above is based on one assumption which changed while the other conditions remain unchanged. In practice, more than one assumption may change all at once. The method of analysing sensitivity and the method of calculating net pension liability in the balance sheet are the same.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the previous period.

(g) Expected contributions to the defined benefit pension plan of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2024 amount to $1,116.

B. Defined contribution plan

(a) Effective July 1, 2005, the Company and its domestic subsidiaries have established a defined contribution pension plan (the “New Plan”) under the Labor Pension Act (the “Act”), covering all regular employees with R.O.C. nationality. Under the New Plan, the Company and its domestic subsidiaries contribute monthly an amount based on 6% of the employees’ monthly salaries and wages to the employees’ individual pension accounts at the Bureau of Labor Insurance. The benefits accrued are paid monthly or in lump sum upon termination of employment.

- (b) Gamania Digital Entertainment (Beijing) Co., Ltd., Legion Technology (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. and Jollywiz Digital Business Co., Ltd. have a defined contribution plan. Monthly contributions to an independent fund administered by the government in accordance with the pension regulations in the People’s Republic of China (PRC) are based on a certain percentage of employees’ monthly salaries and wages. The contribution percentage for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 were both 16%. Other than the monthly contributions, the Group has no further obligations.
- (c) Gamania Digital Entertainment (H.K.) Co., Ltd., Gash Point (Hong Kong) Company Limited, Gash Point (Japan) Co., Ltd., Gash Point Korea Co., Ltd., Joymobee Entertainment Co., Ltd., Hapod Digital Technology Co., Ltd., Jollywiz International (HK) Co., Ltd., Digicentre (HK) Company Limited and Hyperg Smart Security Technology Pte., Ltd. provide pension reserves annually for their employees in accordance with the local regulations.
- (d) The pension costs under the defined contribution pension plan of the Group for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 were $48,174 and $42,448, respectively.

(18) Common stock

As of December 31, 2023, the Company’s authorised capital was $2,500,000, consisting of 250 million shares of ordinary stock (including 12 million shares reserved for employee stock options), and the paid-in capital was $1,754,936 with a par value of $10 (in dollars) per share. All proceeds from shares issued have been collected.

(19) Capital surplus

- A. Pursuant to the R.O.C. Company Law, capital surplus arising from paid-in capital in excess of par value on issuance of common stocks and donations can be used to cover accumulated deficit or to issue new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, provided that the Company has no accumulated deficit. Further, the R.O.C. Securities and Exchange Law requires that the amount of capital surplus to be capitalised mentioned above should not exceed 10% of the paid-in capital each year. Capital surplus should not be used to cover accumulated deficit unless the legal reserve is insufficient.
- B. When it is resolved by the shareholders at their shareholders’ meeting, legal reserve and whole or part of capital reserve arising from the following items can be used to issue new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, provided that the Company has no accumulated deficit:

- (a) Paid-in capital in excess of par value on issuance of common stocks; and
- (b) Donations.

(20) Retained earnings

- A. Under the Company’s Articles of Incorporation, the current year’s earnings, if any, shall first be used to pay all taxes and offset prior years’ operating losses, then 10% of the remaining amount shall be set aside as legal reserve until the legal reserve equals the total capital stock balance, and appropriate or reverse for special reserve as required by the operating needs of the Company or regulations when necessary. The remainder, if any, to be retained or to be appropriated shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and resolved by the stockholders at the stockholders’ meeting.
- B. The Company’s dividend policy adopts the conservatism principle, with consideration of the Company’s profit, financial structure and future development plans. At least 10% of the Company’s distributable earnings as of the end of the period shall be appropriated as cash dividends.
- C. Except for covering accumulated deficit or issuing new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, the legal reserve shall not be used for any other purpose. The use of legal reserve for the issuance of stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership is permitted, provided that the distribution of the reserve is limited to the portion in excess of 25% of the Company’s paid-in capital.
- D. (a) In accordance with the regulations, the Company shall set aside special reserve from the debit balance on other equity items at the balance sheet date before distributing earnings. When debit balance on other equity items is reversed subsequently, the reversed amount could be included in the distributable earnings.
 (b) The amounts previously set aside by the Company as special reserve on initial application of IFRSs in accordance with Order No. Financial-Supervisory-Securities-Corporate-1010012865, dated April 6, 2012, shall be reversed proportionately when the relevant assets are used, disposed of or reclassified subsequently.
- E. On June 16, 2022, the shareholders during their meeting approved the appropriations of 2021 retained earnings as follows:

A. According to the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the profit before tax before deduction of employees' compensation and directors' remuneration of the Company, shall be distributed as employees' compensation and directors' remuneration. The ratio shall be 10%~15% for employees' compensation and shall not be higher than 2% for directors' remuneration. However, where the Company has accumulated losses, the Company shall first use any profit to cover such losses.

B. (a) For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, employees' compensation was accrued at $66,380 and $173,572, respectively; while directors' remuneration was accrued at $13,276 and $34,714, respectively. The aforementioned amounts were recognised in salary expenses.

(b) For the year ended December 31, 2023, the employees' compensation and directors' remuneration were estimated and accrued based on the Company's Articles of Incorporation of distributable profit of current year as of the end of reporting period. Employees' compensation and directors' remuneration for 2023 amounted to $67,500 and $13,400 respectively, as resolved at the meeting of the Board of Directors. The difference in employees' compensation and directors' remuneration for 2023 amounting to $1,120 and $124, respectively, had been adjusted in the profit or loss for 2024.

(c) Employees' compensation and directors' remuneration for 2022 amounted to $173,572 and $34,700, respectively, as resolved at the meeting of the Board of Directors. The difference in employees' compensation and directors' remuneration for 2022 amounting to $14, respectively, had been adjusted in the profit or loss for 2023.

C. Information about the appropriation of employees' compensation and directors' remuneration by the Company as resolved by the Board of Directors and stockholders will be posted in the 'Market Observation Post System' at the website of the Taiwan Stock Exchange.

B. Financial risk management policies

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks, including market risk (including foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's risk management program considers the effect of economic environment, competition and market value risk. The Group attains to the best risk position, holds appropriate liquidity position and centers on management of all the market risks. To reach the objective of risk management, the Group's hedged activities are focused on the market value risk and the cash flow risk.

C. Significant financial risks and degrees of financial risks

(a) Market risk

Foreign exchange risk

- i. Each of the entities in the Group operates in different countries and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to the USD. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets and liabilities and net investments in foreign operations.
- ii. Management has set up a policy to require group companies to manage their foreign exchange risk against their functional currency. To manage their foreign exchange risk arising from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities, the Group set the natural hedging as principle. Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions, recognised assets or liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency.

- iii. The Group's businesses involve some non-functional currency operations. The information on assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies of each entity in the Group whose values would be materially affected by the exchange rate fluctuations is as follows:

Price risk

- i. The Group's equity securities, which are exposed to price risk, are the held financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income. To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Group diversifies its portfolio. Diversification of the portfolio is done in accordance with the limits set by the Group.
- ii. The Group's investments in equity securities comprise shares and open-end funds issued by the domestic companies. The prices of equity securities would change due to the change of the future value of investee companies. However, the Group has set stop-loss amounts for those assets; therefore, no material market risk is expected. If the prices of these equity securities had increased by 1% with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 would have increased/decreased by $150, respectively, as a result of gains/losses on equity securities classified as at fair value through profit or loss. Other comprehensive income or loss for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 would have increased by $1,129 and $1,176, respectively, because equity investment is classified as financial asset at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

- i. The Group's interest rate risk arises from borrowings issued at variable rates and expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The interest rates for short-term borrowings of the Group are mainly floating rate and for long-term borrowings are fixed and variable rates. During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Group's borrowings at variable rate were denominated in NTD.
- ii. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, if interest rates on borrowings had been 1% higher/lower with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 would have been $38 and $60 lower/higher, respectively, mainly as a result of higher/lower interest expense on floating rate borrowings.

(b) Credit risk

- i. Credit risk refers to the risk of financial loss to the Group arising from default by the clients or counterparties of financial instruments on the contract obligations. The main factor is that counterparties could not repay in full the accounts receivable based on the agreed terms and the contract cash flows of debt instruments stated at amortised cost.
- ii. According to the Group's credit policy, each local entity in the Group is responsible for managing and analysing the credit risk for each of their new clients before standard payment and delivery terms and conditions are offered. The internal risk control management evaluates the credit quality of the customers, taking into account their financial position, past experience and other factors. Individual risk limits are set based on ratings from accounting and administration departments in accordance with limits set by the Board of Directors. The utilisation of credit limits is regularly monitored. Credit risk mainly arose from debt instruments stated at amortised cost and receivables generated from operating activity. Only banks and financial institutions with optimal credit ratings are accepted.

- iii. The Group adopts assumptions under IFRS 9 to assess whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on that instrument since initial recognition. When the payment is past due 30 days based on the contract terms, there is a significant increase in credit risk on financial assets since initial recognition.
- iv. In line with credit risk management procedure, the default occurs when the Group expects that payments cannot be collected and reclassified as overdue receivables.
- v. The Group classifies customer's accounts receivable and contract assets in accordance with product types. The Group applies the simplified approach using the provision matrix to estimate expected credit loss.
- vi. The Group wrote-off the financial assets, which cannot be reasonably expected to be recovered, after initiating recourse procedures. However, the Group will continue executing the recourse procedures to secure their rights. On December 31, 2023, the Group has no written-off financial assets that are still under recourse procedures.
- vii. The Group uses the forecastability to adjust historical and timely information to assess the default possibility of accounts receivable and other receivables. On December 31, 2023, 2022, the provision matrix is as follows:

|                | Expected loss rate | December 31, 2023   |                  |

(3) Fair value information

A. The different levels that the inputs to valuation techniques are used to measure fair value of financial and non-financial instruments have been defined as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date. A market is regarded as active where a market in which transactions for the asset or liability take place with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis. The fair value of the Group's investment in listed, OTC and emerging stocks is included in Level 1.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. The fair value of the Group's investment in listed and OTC stocks of private placement is included in Level 2.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. The fair value of the Group's investment in equity investment without active market is included in Level 3.

B. Financial instruments not measured at fair value

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, financial assets at amortised cost, notes receivable, accounts receivable (including related parties), other receivables (including related parties), other current assets, guarantee deposits paid, notes payable, accounts payable (including related parties), other payables (including related parties), lease liabilities and guarantee deposits received, are approximate to the fair values.

C. The related information on financial and non-financial instruments measured at fair value by level on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the assets and liabilities is as follows:

| December 31, 2023  | Level 1 | Level 2 | Level 3 | Total |
|---|----------------|----------------|----------------|--------------|
| Assets   |                |                |                |              |
| Recurring fair value measurements  |                |                |                |              |

| Assets   |                |                |                |              |
| Recurring fair value measurements  |                |                |                |              |
| Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss - TV shows production investing sharing agreement | $ -           | $ -           | $ 15,000      | $ 15,000    |
| Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income - non-current                         |                |                |                |              |
| Equity securities   | $ 60,478      | $ -           | $ 57,103      | $ 117,581   |

D. The methods and assumptions the Group used to measure fair value are as follows:

- (a) The instruments the Group used market quoted prices as their fair values (that is, Level 1) are listed below by characteristics:

|                     | Open-end fund | Listed (OTC) and emerging stocks |
| Market quoted price | Net asset value      | Closing price                           |

- (b) Except for financial instruments with active markets, the fair value of other financial instruments is measured by using valuation techniques or by reference to counterparty quotes. The fair value of financial instruments measured by using valuation techniques method can be referred to current fair value of instruments with similar terms and characteristics in substance, discounted cash flow method or other valuation methods, including calculated by applying model using market information available at the consolidated balance sheet date.
- (c) For highly complex financial instruments, the fair value is measured by using self-developed valuation model based on the valuation method and technique widely used within the same industry. The valuation model is normally applied to derivative financial instruments, debt instruments with embedded derivatives or securitised instruments. Certain inputs used in the valuation model are not observable at market, and the Group must make reasonable estimates based on its assumptions. The effect of unobservable inputs to the valuation of financial instruments is provided in Notes 12(3) H and I.

(d) The output of valuation model is an estimated value and the valuation technique may not be able to capture all relevant factors of the Group's financial and non-financial instruments. Therefore, the estimated value derived using valuation model is adjusted accordingly with additional inputs, for example, model risk or liquidity risk and etc. In accordance with the Group's management policies and relevant control procedures relating to the valuation models used for fair value measurement, management believes adjustment to valuation is necessary in order to reasonably represent the fair value of financial and non-financial instruments at the consolidated balance sheet. The inputs and pricing information used during valuation are carefully assessed and adjusted based on current market conditions.

E. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, there was no transfer between Level 1 and Level 2.

F. The following chart is the movement of Level 3 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022:

G. Treasury department is in charge of valuation procedures for fair value measurements being categorised within Level 3, which is to verify independent fair value of financial instruments. Such assessment is to ensure the valuation results are reasonable by applying independent information to make results close to current market conditions, confirming the resource of information is independent, reliable and in line with other resources and represented as the exercisable price, and frequently calibrating valuation model, updating inputs used to the valuation model and making any other necessary adjustments to the fair value.

H. The following is the qualitative information of significant unobservable inputs and sensitivity analysis of changes in significant unobservable inputs to valuation model used in Level 3 fair value measurement:

I. The Group has carefully assessed the valuation models and assumptions used to measure fair value. However, use of different valuation models or assumptions may result in different measurement. The following is the effect on profit or loss or on other comprehensive income from financial assets categorised within Level 3 if the inputs used to valuation models have changed:

Note 1: The numbers filled in for the transaction company in respect of inter-company transactions are as follows:

- (1) Parent company is '0'.
- (2) The subsidiaries are numbered in order starting from '1'.

Note 2: Relationship between transaction company and counterparty is classified into the following three categories ; fill in the number of category each case belongs to (if transactions between parent company and subsidiaries or between subsidiaries refer to the same transaction, it is not required to disclose twice. For example, if the parent company has already disclosed its transaction with a subsidiary, then the subsidiary is not required to disclose the transaction; for transactions between two subsidiaries, if one of the subsidiaries has disclosed the transaction, then the other is not required to disclose the transaction):

- (1) Parent company to subsidiary.
- (2) Subsidiary to parent company.
- (3) Subsidiary to subsidiary.

Note 3: Regarding percentage of transaction amount to consolidated total operating revenues or total assets, it is computed based on period-end balance of transaction to consolidated total assets for balance sheet accounts and based on accumulated transaction amount for the period to consolidated total operating revenues for income statement accounts.

Note 4: There is no similar transaction to compare with. It will follow the agreed price and transaction terms.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying parent company only balance sheets of Gamania Digital Entertainment Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related parent company only statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the audit reports of other auditors, the accompanying parent company only financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Financial Statement Audit and Attestation Engagements of Certified Public Accountants and Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Company's 2023 parent company only financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the parent company only financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Given that the financial performance of Gamania Digital Entertainment (H.K.) Co., Ltd., a subsidiary directly held by the Company accounted for using the equity method, has been assessed to have a significant impact on the Company's parent company only financial statements, we consider the estimation of recognition of the subsidiary's online and mobile games revenue and contract liability as a key audit matter.

Estimation of revenue recognition of online and mobile games revenue

Description

Refer to Note 4(25) for accounting policies on revenue recognition, Note 5(2) for the critical accounting estimates and assumptions and Note 6(20) for the details of accounting applied on revenue recognition.

The Company and the subsidiary, Gamania Digital Entertainment (H.K.) Co., Ltd., are primarily engaged in providing online and mobile game services. The game players purchase game stored-value cards or value-added to play the game or exchange for virtual items. The Company and the subsidiary, Gamania Digital Entertainment (H.K.) Co., Ltd., recognise receipt of payments for game stored-value card purchases or value-added by players as 'contract liability', and recognises revenue over the period of the service or the estimated delivery period of the virtual items when the game stored-value cards or value-added is used for the purchase of service or virtual items, respectively.

The estimation of the virtual items delivery period, which is the same as the expected users' relationship period, is based on historical data on item consumption and item transfer by management. The Company has implemented processes and controls to develop and periodically review these estimates. Given that the Company has many transactions of game revenue and the deferral of virtual items and the estimation of users relationship period involve management's subjective judgement, we consider the estimation of recognition of online and mobile games revenue and contract liability as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures on the above key audit matter:

- A. Assessed and tested the relevant internal controls over revenue recognition for online and mobile games revenue.
- B. Tested on a sample basis the consumption information generated from the Company's data collection systems and verified against the consumption report provided by the Company's accountant.
- C. Tested on a sample basis the virtual items information generated from the Company's data collection systems and verified against the contract liability as shown in the trial balance sheet provided by the Company's accountant.

- D. Tested on a sample basis the expected users' relationship periods as reflected in the data collection systems, and compared with expected consumption based on the Company's accounting policy.

Impairment assessment of premium on investments accounted for under equity method

Description

Refer to Notes 4(13) and 4(17) for accounting policy on impairment assessment of investments accounted for under equity method, Notes 6(6) and 6(12) for details of impairment assessment of investments accounted for under equity method, and Note 5(2) for uncertainty of accounting estimates and assumptions in relation to impairment assessment of investments accounted for under equity method.

As of December 31, 2023, the investments of Gamania Digital Entertainment Co., Ltd. in NOWnews Network Co., Ltd. and Digicentre Company Limited are material and there is a premium arising from goodwill. The future cash flows projections of the expected recoverable amount was calculated based on management's estimation and expectation of the future operations, which involve management's subjective judgement and significant estimation, and the result is significant to the financial statements. Thus, we consider impairment assessment of investments accounted for using equity method a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter:

We performed the following audit procedures relative to the above key audit matter:

- A. Assessed whether the valuation models adopted by the Company are reasonable for the industry, environment and the valued assets of the Company;
- B. Confirmed whether the expected future cash flows adopted in the valuation model are in agreement with the budget provided by the cash-generating units;
- C. Assessed the appointed external appraisers in conformity with the rules of qualification and independence, and evaluated the reasonableness of material assumptions, such as expected growth rates, operating profit margin and discount rates, by:
  - (1) Reviewing the appraisal method and calculation formulas used by the independent appraisal expert.
  - (2) Comparing the expected growth rate and operating profit margin with historical data;

(3) Reviewing the discount rate and comparing similar return on similar assets in the market.

D. Compared the recoverable value and book value of each cash-generating unit in order to assess the reasonableness of the book value.

Other matter – Scope of the Audit

As described in Note 6(6), we did not audit the financial statements of certain investments accounted for under the equity method and the related information disclosed in Note 13, which were audited by other auditors. Therefore, our opinion expressed herein, insofar as it relates to the amounts included in respect of these associates, is based solely on the reports of the other auditors. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the comprehensive income amounted to NT$126,454 thousand and NT$63,104 thousand, respectively, and the balance of investments accounted for under equity method amounted to NT$1,283,292 thousand and NT$1,075,658 thousand as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the parent company only financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent company only financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of parent company only financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company only financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these parent company only financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company only financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the parent company only financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the parent company only financial statements of the current year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The above standards and interpretations have no significant impact to the Company's financial condition and financial performance based on the Company's assessment.

4. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these parent company only financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

(1) Compliance statement

The parent company only financial statements were prepared in accordance with 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers'.

(2) Basis of preparation

A. Except for the following items, the parent company only financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention:

- (a) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

- (b) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.
  - (c) Defined benefit liabilities recognised based on the net amount of pension fund assets less present value of defined benefit obligation.
- B. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC® Interpretations, and SIC® Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the FSC (collectively referred herein as the “IFRSs”) requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Company’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the parent company only financial statements are disclosed in Note 5.

(3) Foreign currency translation

Items included in the parent company only financial statements of each of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the company operates (the “functional currency”). The parent company only financial statements are presented in New Taiwan Dollars, which is the Company’s functional and presentation currency.

A. Foreign currency transactions and balances

- (a) Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are remeasured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.
- (b) Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the period end are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising upon re-translation at the balance sheet date are recognised in profit or loss.
- (c) Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through profit or loss are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognised in profit or loss. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through other comprehensive income are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognised in other comprehensive income. However, non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are not measured at fair value are translated using the historical exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions.
- (d) All other foreign exchange gains and losses based on the nature of those transactions are presented in the statement of comprehensive income within ‘other gains and losses’.

B. Translation of foreign operations

- (a) The operating results and financial position of all the Company entities and associates that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- i. Assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing exchange rate at the date of that balance sheet;
  - ii. Income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates of that period; and
  - iii. All resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income.
- (b) When the foreign operation partially disposed of or sold is an associate, exchange differences that were recorded in other comprehensive income are proportionately reclassified to profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on sale. In addition, if the Company retains partial interest in the former foreign associate after losing significant influence over the former foreign associate, such transactions should be accounted for as disposal of all interest in these foreign operations.
- (c) When the foreign operation partially disposed of or sold is a subsidiary, cumulative exchange differences that were recorded in other comprehensive income are proportionately transferred to the non-controlling interest in this foreign operation. In addition, when the Company retains partial interest in the former foreign subsidiary after losing control of the former foreign subsidiary, such transactions should be accounted for as disposal of all interest in the foreign operations.

(4) Classification of current and non-current items

- A. Assets that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current assets; otherwise they are classified as non-current assets:
- (a) Assets arising from operating activities that are expected to be realised, or are intended to be sold or consumed within the normal operating cycle;
  - (b) Assets held mainly for trading purposes;
  - (c) Assets that are expected to be realised within twelve months from the balance sheet date;
  - (d) Cash and cash equivalents, excluding restricted cash and cash equivalents and those that are to be exchanged or used to settle liabilities more than twelve months after the balance sheet date.
- B. Liabilities that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current liabilities; otherwise they are classified as non-current liabilities:
- (a) Liabilities that are expected to be settled within the normal operating cycle;
  - (b) Liabilities arising mainly from trading activities;
  - (c) Liabilities that are to be settled within twelve months from the balance sheet date;
  - (d) Liabilities for which the repayment date cannot be extended unconditionally to more than twelve months after the balance sheet date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

(5) Cash equivalents

Cash equivalents refer to short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Time deposits that meet the definition above and are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments in operations are classified as cash equivalents.

(6) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

- A. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets that are not measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income.
- B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised and derecognised using trade date accounting.
- C. At initial recognition, the Company measures the financial assets at fair value and recognises the transaction costs in profit or loss. The Company subsequently measures the financial assets at fair value, and recognises the gain or loss in profit or loss.

(7) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

- A. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income comprise equity securities which are not held for trading, and for which the Company has made an irrevocable election at initial recognition to recognise changes in fair value in other comprehensive income.
- B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognised and derecognised using trade date accounting.
- C. They are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs. These financial assets are subsequently remeasured and stated at fair value. The changes in fair value of equity investments that were recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to retained earnings and are not reclassified to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends are recognised as revenue when the right to receive payment is established, future economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Company and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(8) Financial assets at amortised cost

The Company's time deposits which do not fall under cash equivalents are those with a short maturity period and are measured at initial investment amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(9) Accounts receivable

- A. Accounts and notes receivable entitle the Company a legal right to receive consideration in exchange for transferred goods or rendered services.
- B. The short-term accounts receivable without bearing interest are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(10) Impairment of financial assets

For accounts receivable that have a significant financing component, at each reporting date, the Company recognises the impairment provision for 12 months expected credit losses if there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or recognises the impairment provision for the lifetime expected credit losses (ECLs) if such credit risk has increased since initial recognition after taking into consideration all reasonable and verifiable information that includes forecasts. On the other hand, for accounts receivable that do not contain a significant financing component, the Company recognises the impairment provision for lifetime ECLs.

(11) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognises a financial asset when one of the following conditions is met:

- A. The contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset expire.
- B. The contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have been transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.
- C. The contractual rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset have been transferred and, the Company has not retained control of the financial asset.

(12) Leasing arrangements (lessor) - operating leases

Lease income from an operating lease (net of any incentives given to the lessee) is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(13) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The original costs are the cost to obtain the assets. Cost is determined using the weighted-average method. The item by item approach is used in applying the lower of cost and net realizable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the applicable variable selling expenses.

(14) Investments accounted for under the equity method – subsidiaries and associates

- A. Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Company. The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.
- B. Unrealised profit or loss arising from the transactions between the Company and subsidiaries have been offset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries are consistent with the policies adopted by the Company.
- C. The Company's share of its subsidiaries' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognised in profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income. When the Company's share of losses in a subsidiary equals or exceeds its interest in the subsidiary, including any other unsecured receivables, the Company continues to recognise losses in proportion to its ownership.

- D. If changes in shareholdings in subsidiaries do not result to loss of control (transaction with non-controlling interest), transactions shall be considered as equity transactions, which are transactions between owners. The difference between the adjustment in non-controlling interest and fair value of consideration paid or received is recognised in equity.
- E. When the Company loses control of a subsidiary, the Company remeasures any investment retained in the former subsidiary at its fair value. That fair value is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset or the cost on initial recognition of the associate or joint venture. Any difference between fair value and carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary are reclassified to profit or loss on the same basis as would be required if the related assets or liabilities were disposed of. That is, when the Company loses control of a subsidiary, all gains or losses previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary should be reclassified from equity to profit or loss, if such gains or losses would be reclassified to profit or loss when the related assets or liabilities are disposed of.
- F. Associates are all entities over which the Company has significant influence but not control. In general, it is presumed that the investor has significant influence, if an investor holds, directly or indirectly 20 percent or more of the voting power of the investee. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method and are initially recognised at cost.
- G. The Company's share of its associates' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognised in profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income. When the Company's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Company does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred statutory/constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.
- H. When changes in an associate's equity do not arise from profit or loss or other comprehensive income of the associate and such changes do not affect the Company's ownership percentage of the associate, the Company recognises change in ownership interests in the associate in 'capital surplus' in proportion to its ownership.
- I. Unrealised gains on transactions between the Company and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Company's interest in the associates. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred.
- J. In the case that an associate issues new shares and the Company does not subscribe or acquire new shares proportionately, which results in a change in the Company's ownership percentage of the associate but maintains significant influence on the associate, then 'capital surplus' and 'investments accounted for under the equity method' shall be adjusted for the increase or decrease of its share of equity interest.

- K. When the Company disposes its investment in an associate and loses significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate, are reclassified to profit or loss, on the same basis as would be required if the relevant assets or liabilities were disposed of. If it retains significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate are reclassified to profit or loss proportionately in accordance with the aforementioned approach.
- L. Pursuant to the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, profit or loss of the current period and other comprehensive income in the parent company only financial statements shall equal to the amount attributable to owners of the parent in the consolidated financial statements. Owners' equity in the parent company only financial statements shall equal to equity attributable to owners of the parent in the consolidated financial statements.

- A. Property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost.
- B. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.
- C. Land is not depreciated. Other property, plant and equipment apply cost model and are depreciated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost over their estimated useful lives. Each part of an item of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item must be depreciated separately.
- D. The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are evaluated, and adjusted if appropriate, at each financial year-end. If expectations for the assets' residual values and useful lives differ from previous estimates or the patterns of consumption of the assets' future economic benefits embodied in the assets have changed significantly, any change is accounted for as a change in estimate under IAS 8, 'Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors', from the date of the change. The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

|--------------------------------|-------------------|
| Buildings               | 3~51 years |
| Machinery and equipment | 4~8 years  |
| Office equipment        | 2~8 years  |
| Leasehold asset         | 4~5 years  |
| Other equipment         | 4~8 years  |

(16) Leasing arrangements (lessee) - right-of-use assets/lease liabilities

- A. Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Company. For short-term leases or leases of low-value assets, lease payments are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.
- B. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the remaining lease payments at the commencement date, discounted using the incremental borrowing interest rate. Lease payments are fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable. The Company subsequently measures the lease liability at amortised cost using the incremental borrowing interest rate and recognises interest expense over the lease term. The lease liability is remeasured and the amount of remeasurement is recognised as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset when there are changes in the lease term or lease payments and such changes do not arise from contract modifications.
- C. At the commencement date, the right-of-use asset is stated at cost and the cost is comprised of the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability. The right-of-use asset is measured subsequently using the cost model and is depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the asset's useful life or the end of the lease term. When the lease liability is remeasured, the amount of remeasurement is recognised as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

(17) Intangible assets

A. Software

Costs of software are stated at cost and amortised under the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of 1~5 years.

B. Licence fees

Licence fees for operating online game software are stated at cost and amortised based on the period of the contract or reversed in proportion of operating revenue after the online games are launched. Licence fees are amortised over their estimated useful lives of 1 ~ 5 years.

C. Other intangible assets

Other intangible assets with a finite useful life, including license applied in games and unamortised charges, are stated at cost and amortised under straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 3~15 years.

(18) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date the recoverable amounts of those assets in accordance with IAS 36 'Impairment of assets' where there is an indication that they are impaired. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell or value in use. Except for goodwill, when the circumstances or reasons for recognising impairment loss for an asset in prior years no longer exist or diminish, the impairment loss is reversed. The increased carrying amount due to reversal should not be more than what the depreciated or amortised historical cost would have been if the impairment had not been recognised.

(19) Borrowings

It refers to long and short-term loans borrowed from banks. Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

(20) Notes and accounts payable

Notes and accounts payable are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Short-term notes and accounts payable which are non-interest bearing are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(21) Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

(22) Employee benefits

A. Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in respect of service rendered by employees in a period and should be recognised as expense in that period when the employees render service.

B. Pensions

(a) Defined contribution plan

For defined contribution plan, the contributions are recognised as pension expense when they are due on an accrual basis. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent of a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments.

(b) Defined benefit plan

- i. Net obligation under a defined benefit plan is defined as the present value of an amount of pension benefits that employees will receive on retirement for their services with the Company in current period or prior periods. The liability recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit pension plan is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date less the fair value of plan assets. The net defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method. The rate used to discount is determined by using interest rates of government bonds (at the balance sheet date).
- ii. Remeasurements arising on defined benefit plan are recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise and are recorded as retained earnings.

C. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are employee benefits provided in exchange for the termination of employment as a result from either the Company's decision to terminate an employee's employment before the normal retirement date, or an employee's decision to accept an offer of redundancy benefits in exchange for the termination of employment. The Company recognises expense when it can no longer withdraw an offer of termination benefits or it recognises related restructuring costs, whichever is earlier. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after balance sheet date are discounted to their present value.

D. Employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration

Employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration are recognised as expense and liability, provided that such recognition is required under legal or constructive obligation and those amounts can be reliably estimated. Any difference between the resolve amounts and the subsequently actual distributed amounts is accounted for as changes in estimates.

(23) Income tax

- A. The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or items recognised directly in equity, in which cases the tax is recognised in other comprehensive income or equity.
- B. The current income tax expense is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in accordance with applicable tax regulations. It establishes provisions where appropriate based on the amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities. An additional tax is levied on the unappropriated retained earnings and is recorded as income tax expense in the year the stockholders resolve to retain the earnings.
- C. Deferred tax is recognised, using the balance sheet liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the parent company only balance sheet. However, the deferred tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Company and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

- D. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised. At each balance sheet date, unrecognised and recognised deferred tax assets are reassessed.
- E. Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset on the balance sheet when the entity has the legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and they are levied by the same taxation authority on either the same entity or different entities that intend to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.
- F. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the tax credits can be utilised.

(24) Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or stock options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

(25) Dividends

Dividends are recorded in the Company's financial statements in the period in which they are approved by the Company's shareholders. Cash dividends are recorded as liabilities; stock dividends are recorded as stock dividends to be distributed and are reclassified to ordinary shares on the effective date of new shares issuance.

(26) Revenue recognition

A. Online and mobile games revenue

- (a) The Company is engaged in online games and mobile phone games and sales of peripheral products of the games. Sales are recognised when control of the products has transferred, that is, the customer has control of the product and obtained most residual benefit, and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer acceptance of the products.
- (b) Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable taking into account business tax, returns, rebates and discounts for the sale of goods based on the contract price.
- (c) The Company recognises the collections of payments for game stored-value card purchases or value-added by players as contract liabilities, and amortises those amounts as revenue over the expected users' relationship period or the estimated delivery period of the virtual items, when they are actually used.
- (d) The Company recognises accounts receivable when the control of product has been transferred and has the right to collect price without condition. The accounts receivable has usually a short-term period and does not contain significant financial component. However, for online games and mobile phone games, the Company collects the price in advance upon sale, and recognises the contract liability.

B. Royalty income

The Company entered into a contract with a customer to grant a licence of agency to the customer. Given the licence is distinct from other promised goods or services in the contract, the Company recognises the revenue from licencing when the licence is transferred to a customer either at a point in time or over time based on the nature of the licence granted. The nature of the Company's promise in granting a licence is a promise to provide a right to access the Company's intellectual property if the Company undertakes activities that significantly affect the agency to which the customer has rights, the customer is affected by the Company's activities and those activities do not result in the transfer of a good or a service to the customer as they occur. The royalties are recognised as revenue on a straight-line basis throughout the licencing period. In case the abovementioned conditions are not met, the nature of the Company's promise in granting a licence is a promise to provide a right to use the Company's agency and therefore the revenue is recognised when transferring the licence to a customer at a point in time. Some contracts require a sales-based royalty in exchange for a licence of agency. The Company recognises revenue when the performance obligation has been satisfied and the subsequent sale occurs.

C. Sales of services

The Company provides customer, administrative and marketing services, which are recognised overtime based on the obligations against the substantial contents specified in the related contracts. The sales of services is based on the price stated in the contract. When the contract consideration includes variable consideration, the Company recognises the minimum amount that is highly likely to not reverse in the future period.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ESTIMATES AND KEY SOURCES OF ASSUMPTION UNCERTAINTY

The preparation of these parent company only financial statements requires management to make critical judgements in applying the Company's accounting policies and make critical assumptions and estimates concerning future events. Assumptions and estimates may differ from the actual results and are continually evaluated and adjusted based on historical experience and other factors. Such assumptions and estimates have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, and the related information is addressed below:

(1) Critical judgments in applying the Company's accounting policies

Revenue recognition on a net/gross basis

The Company determines whether the nature of its performance obligation is to provide the specified goods or services itself (i.e. the Company is a principal) or to arrange for the other party to provide those goods or services (i.e. the Company is an agent) based on the transaction model and its economic substance. The Company is a principal if it controls a promised good or service before it transfers the good or service to a customer. The Company recognises revenue at gross amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services transferred. The Company is an agent if its performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of goods or services by another party. The Company recognises revenue at the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the other party to provide its goods or services.

Indicators that the Company controls the good or service before it is provided to a customer include the following:

- A. The Company is primarily responsible for the provision of goods or services;
- B. The Company assumes the inventory risk before transferring the specified goods or services to the customer or after transferring control of the goods or services to the customer.
- C. The Company has discretion in establishing prices for the goods or services.

(2) Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

A. Revenue recognition

The Company recognises the collections of payments for game stored-value card purchases or value-added by players as contract liabilities, and amortises those amounts as revenue over the expected users' relationship periods or the estimated delivery period of the virtual items, when they are actually used. The Company estimates the deferred amount and delivery period based on operating history and other known factors. Given that the Company has extensive list of virtual items spread across thousands of users and the estimation of delivery period for virtual items may be complex, the Company assesses the reasonableness of the estimation periodically. Please refer to Note 6(19) for more information.

B. Impairment assessment of licence fees

The impairment assessment of licence fees depends on the Company's subjective judgement. The recoverable amount is determined based on estimated online game revenue arising from expected game points used by players and budget expenditures.

C. Impairment assessment of premium on investments accounted for under equity method

The Company assesses premium on investments accounted for under equity method annually. The Company assesses the recoverable amounts of an investment accounted for under the equity method based on the present value of the Company's share of expected future cash flows of the investee, and analyses the reasonableness of related assumptions. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount.

6. DETAILS OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTS

(1) Cash and cash equivalents

|                                  | December 31, 2023 | December 31, 2022 |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| Cash on hand and petty cash      | $ 578                   | $ 538                   |
| Demand deposits                  | 191,614                  | 364,149                  |
| Cash equivalents - time deposits | 30,735                   | 284,248                  |
|                                  | $ 222,927        | $ 648,935        |

A. The Company deals with a variety of financial institutions all with high credit quality to disperse credit risk, so it expects that the probability of counterparty default is remote.

B. The Company has no cash and cash equivalents pledged to others as collateral.

(2) Accounts receivable

|   | December 31, 2023 | December 31, 2022 |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| Accounts receivable                                     | $ 147,785               | $ 158,314               |
| Less: Allowance for uncollectible accounts              | -                        | -                        |
|   | 147,785           | 158,314           |
| Overdue receivables (shown as other non-current assets) | 98,239                   | 98,239                   |
| Less: Allowance for uncollectible accounts              | ( 98,239)                | ( 98,239)                |
|   | -                 | -                 |
|   | $ 147,785        | $ 158,314        |

A. The aging analysis of accounts receivable that were past due but not impaired is as follows:

|              | December 31, 2023 | December 31, 2022 |
|--------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|

The above aging analysis was based on past due date.

B. As at December 31, 2023, December 31, 2022 and January 1, 2022, the balances of receivables and overdue receivables from contracts with customers amounted to $246,024, $256,553 and $299,683, respectively.

C. The Company does not hold any collateral. Further, the Company has no accounts receivable pledged to others as collateral.

D. As at December 31, 2023 and 2022, without taking into account any collateral held or other credit enhancements, the maximum exposure to credit risk in respect of the amount that best represents the Company's accounts receivable and over due receivables were $147,785 and $158,314, respectively.

E. Information relating to credit risk is provided in Note 12(2).

(3) Inventories

|                       | December 31, 2023 |  |              |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|--|--------------|

| Merchandise inventory | $ 3,022          | ($ 2,968)  | $ 54 |
|                       |                          |  |              |
|                       | December 31, 2022 |  |              |
|                       |                          | Allowance forobsolescence andmarket valuedecline | Book value   |
|                       | Cost                     |  |              |

Expenses and losses incurred on inventories for the year:

- A. The Company's property, plant and equipment are mainly owner-occupied.
- B. No borrowing cost was capitalised as part of property, plant and equipment.
- C. Information about the property, plant and equipment that were pledged to others as collateral is provided in Note 8.

(8) Leasing arrangements - lessee

- A. The Company leases various assets including buildings and business vehicles. Rental contracts are typically made for periods of 1 to 4 years. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose covenants, but leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.
- B. Short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less comprise building and multifunction printers. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, payments of lease commitments for short-term leases amounted to $3,019 and $2,269, respectively.
- C. The carrying amount of right-of-use assets and the depreciation charge are as follows:

(12) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company recognised impairment loss of $0 and $44,550 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Details are as follows:

|   | Recognised in profit or loss |                  |
|---|------------------------------|------------------|

|   | $ -                  | $ 44,550 |

- A. The Company assesses the recoverable amounts of agency rights and other intangible assets annually, based on the expected future economic benefits arising from the use of the points generated from income and expenses and the expected future economic benefits. Due to the recoverable amounts being lower than the carrying amounts, impairment losses are recognized.
- B. (a) The Company assessed the recoverable amounts of investments accounted for under equity method, and subsidiaries, NOWnews and Digicentre. The Company tested impairment by comparing recoverable amount with carrying amount, which was determined based on the overall book value of the investments including goodwill as a single asset.

The Company used value-in-use calculated by external appraiser as the recoverable amount. Because the recoverable amount of NOWnews and Digicentre calculated using the value-in-use exceeded their carrying amount, goodwill was not impaired as at December 31, 2023 and 2022. The key assumptions used in calculating value in use are set out below:

|               | December 31, 2023 | December 31, 2022 |
|---------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| Growth rate   | 2.8%~4.7%                | 2.4%~6.4%                |
| Discount rate | 10.8%~13.3%              | 14.0%~14.2%              |

- (b) In addition, for the premium on investment accounted for under equity method, the recoverable amount was calculated using value-in-use. No impairment loss occurred due to the recoverable amount is higher than its carrying amount. The adopted value-in-use took into consideration operating profit margin, growth rate and discount rate.

Management determined budgeted operating profit margin based on past performance and its expectations of market development. The weighted average growth rates used are consistent with the forecasts included in industry reports. The discount rates used are pre-tax and reflect specific risks relating to the relevant operating segments.

Note: The payment conditions and obligations of certain game license are to pay game developers license fees if the revenue reaches a certain amount within three years after the signing of the contract. As at December 31, 2023, the Company recognised the license fees and payable on intangible assets as the payment obligation is highly realisable based on the Company's assessment.

(15) Pensions

A. Defined benefit plan

- (a) The Company has a defined benefit pension plan in accordance with the Labor Standards Act, covering all regular employees' service years prior to the enforcement of the Labor Pension Act on July 1, 2005 and service years thereafter of employees who chose to continue to be subject to the pension mechanism under the Law. Under the defined benefit pension plan, two units are accrued for each year of service for the first 15 years and one unit for each additional year thereafter, subject to a maximum of 45 units. Pension benefits are based on the number of units accrued and the average monthly salaries and wages of the last 6 months prior to retirement. The Company contributes monthly an amount equal to 2% of the employees' monthly salaries and wages to the retirement fund deposited with Bank of Taiwan, the trustee, under the name of the independent retirement fund committee. Also, the Company would assess the balance in the aforementioned labor pension reserve account by December 31, every year. If the account balance is insufficient to pay the pension calculated by the aforementioned method to the employees expected to qualify for retirement in the following year, the Company will make contribution for the deficit by next March.

(b) The pension costs under the defined benefit pension plan of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 were $949 and $792, respectively.

(c) The amounts recognised in the balance sheet are as follows:

- (e) The Bank of Taiwan was commissioned to manage the Fund of the Company's defined benefit pension plan in accordance with the Fund's annual investment and utilisation plan and the "Regulations for Revenues, Expenditures, Safeguard and Utilisation of the Labor Retirement Fund" (Article 6: The scope of utilisation for the Fund includes deposit in domestic or foreign financial institutions, investment in domestic or foreign listed, over-the-counter, or private placement equity securities, investment in domestic or foreign real estate securitization products, etc.). With regard to the utilisation of the Fund, its minimum earnings in the annual distributions on the final financial statements shall be no less than the earnings attainable from the amounts accrued from two-year time deposits with the interest rates offered by local banks. If the earnings is less than aforementioned rates, government shall make payment for the deficit after being authorized by the Regulator. The Company has no right to participate in managing and operating that fund and hence the Company is unable to disclose the classification of plan assets fair value in accordance with IAS 19 paragraph 142. The composition of fair value of plan assets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 is given in the Annual Labor Retirement Fund Utilisation Report announced by the government.
- (f) The principal actuarial assumptions used were as follows:

|                         | Years ended December 31, |       |
|-------------------------|--------------------------|-------|
|                         | 2023                     | 2022  |
| Discount rate           | 1.20%                    | 1.40% |
| Future salary increases | 3.50%                    | 3.50% |

Assumptions regarding future mortality experience are set based on actuarial advice in accordance with published statistics and experience in each territory for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Because the main actuarial assumption changed, the present value of defined benefit obligation is affected. The analysis was as follows:

|   | Discount rate  |                       | Future salary increases |                       |

| Effect on present value of defined benefit obligation | ($ 1,734)            | $ 1,792              | $ 1,571                       | ($ 1,531)            |
| December 31, 2022                                     |                       |                       |                                |                       |
| Effect on present value of defined benefit obligation | ($ 1,849)            | $ 1,918              | $ 1,706                       | ($ 1,657)            |

The sensitivity analysis above was based on one assumption which changed while the other conditions remain unchanged. In practice, more than one assumption may change all at once. The method of analysing sensitivity and the method of calculating net pension liability in the balance sheet are the same.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the previous period.

- (g) Expected contributions to the defined benefit pension plan of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2024 amount to $1,116.

B. Defined contribution plan

- (a) Effective July 1, 2005, the Company has established a defined contribution pension plan (the “New Plan”) under the Labor Pension Act (the “Act”), covering all regular employees with R.O.C. nationality. Under the New Plan, the Company contributes monthly an amount based on 6% of the employees’ monthly salaries and wages to the employees’ individual pension accounts at the Bureau of Labor Insurance. The benefits accrued are paid monthly or in lump sum upon termination of employment.
- (b) The pension costs under the defined contribution pension plan of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 were $24,539 and $22,455, respectively.

(16) Common stock

- A. As of December 31, 2023, the Company’s authorised capital was $2,500,000, consisting of 250 million shares of ordinary stock (including 12 million shares reserved for employee stock options), and the paid-in capital was $1,754,936 with a par value of $10 (in dollars) per share. All proceeds from shares issued have been collected.

- B. The number of the Company's ordinary shares (in thousands) outstanding does not require any reconciliation.

(17) Capital surplus

- A. Pursuant to the R.O.C. Company Law, capital surplus arising from paid-in capital in excess of par value on issuance of common stocks and donations can be used to cover accumulated deficit or to issue new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, provided that the Company has no accumulated deficit. Further, the R.O.C. Securities and Exchange Law requires that the amount of capital surplus to be capitalised mentioned above should not exceed 10% of the paid-in capital each year. Capital surplus should not be used to cover accumulated deficit unless the legal reserve is insufficient.
- B. When it is resolved by the shareholders at their shareholders' meeting, legal reserve and whole or part of capital reserve arising from the following items can be used to issue new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, provided that the Company has no accumulated deficit:
  - (a) Paid-in capital in excess of par value on issuance of common stocks; and
  - (b) Donations.

(18) Retained earnings

- A. Under the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the current year's earnings, if any, shall first be used to pay all taxes and offset prior years' operating losses, then 10% of the remaining amount shall be set aside as legal reserve until the legal reserve equals the total capital stock balance, and appropriate or reverse for special reserve as required by the operating needs of the Company or regulations when necessary. The remainder, if any, to be retained or to be appropriated shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and to be resolved by the stockholders at the stockholders' meeting.
- B. The Company's dividend policy adopts conservatism principle, with consideration of the Company's profit, financial structure and future development plans. At least 10% of the Company's distributable earnings as of the end of the period shall be appropriated as cash dividends.
- C. Except for covering accumulated deficit or issuing new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, the legal reserve shall not be used for any other purpose. The use of legal reserve for the issuance of stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership is permitted, provided that the distribution of the reserve is limited to the portion in excess of 25% of the Company's paid-in capital.
- D. (a) In accordance with the regulations, the Company shall set aside special reserve from the debit balance on other equity items at the balance sheet date before distributing earnings. When debit balance on other equity items is reversed subsequently, the reversed amount could be included in the distributable earnings.

(b) The amounts previously set aside by the Company as special reserve on initial application of IFRSs in accordance with Jin-Guan-Zheng-Fa-Zi Letter No. 1010012865, dated April 6, 2012, shall be reversed proportionately when the relevant assets are used, disposed of or reclassified subsequently.

E. On June 16, 2022, the shareholders during their meeting resolved the appropriations of 2021 retained earnings as follows:

|  | Year ended December 31, 2021 |  |

D. The amounts of deductible temporary differences that were not recognised as deferred tax assets are as follows:

|                                  | December 31, 2023 | December 31, 2022 |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| Deductible temporary differences | $ 117,218               | $ 172,125               |

The deductible temporary differences arise when the Company does not plan to dispose subsidiaries in the foreseeable future. Thus, the part of investment loss on overseas subsidiaries was not recognised as deferred tax assets.

E. The Company's income tax returns through 2021 have been assessed and approved by the Tax Authority.

Note: Effective January 1, 2008, as employees' compensation could be distributed in the form of stock, the diluted EPS computation shall include those estimated shares that would increase from employees' stock compensation issuance in the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period, taking into account the dilutive effects of stock compensation on potential common shares; whereas, basic EPS shall be calculated based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period that include the shares of employees' stock compensation for the appropriation of prior year earnings, which have already been resolved at the shareholders' meeting held in the reporting period. Since capitalisation of employees' compensation no longer belongs to distribution of stock dividends (or retained earnings and capital reserve capitalised), the calculation of basic EPS and diluted EPS for all periods presented shall not be adjusted retroactively.

C Significant financial risks and degrees of financial risks

(a) Market risk

Foreign exchange risk

- i. Each of the entities in the Company operates in different countries and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to the USD. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets and liabilities and net investments in foreign operations.
- ii. Management has set up a policy to require group companies to manage their foreign exchange risk against their functional currency. To manage their foreign exchange risk arising from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities, the Company set the natural hedging as principle. Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions, recognised assets or liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency.
- iii. The Company's businesses involve some non-functional currency operations. The information on assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies whose values would be materially affected by the exchange rate fluctuations is as follows:

| December 31, 2023                       |   |               |                     |

- iv. The total exchange gain, including realised and unrealised arising from significant foreign exchange variation on the monetary items held by the Company for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 amounted to $3,015 and $12,367, respectively. Analysis of foreign currency market risk arising from significant foreign exchange rate fluctuations is as follows:

Price risk

- i. The Company's equity securities, which are exposed to price risk, are the held financial assets at fair value through or loss and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income. To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Company diversifies its portfolio. Diversification of the portfolio is done in accordance with the limits set by the Company.
- ii. The Company's investments in equity securities comprise shares by the domestic companies. The prices of equity securities would change due to the change of the future value of investee companies. However, the Company has set stop-loss amounts for those assets; therefore, no material market risk is expected. If the prices of these equity securities had increased/decreased by 1% with all other variables held constant for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, other comprehensive income classified as equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income would have increased/decreased by $734 and $810, respectively.

Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

- i. The Company's interest rate risk arises from borrowings issued at variable rates and expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. The interest rate for short-term borrowings of the Company are mainly floating rate and for long-term borrowings are fixed and variable rates. During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company's borrowings at variable rate were denominated in NTD.

- ii. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, if interest rates on borrowings had been 1% higher/lower with all other variables held constant, after-tax profit for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 would have been $1 and $3 lower/higher, respectively, mainly as a result of higher/lower interest expense on floating rate borrowings.

(b) Credit risk

- i. Credit risk refers to the risk of financial loss to the Company arising from default by the clients or counterparties of financial instruments on the contract obligations. The main factor is that counterparties could not repay in full the accounts receivable based on the agreed terms.
- ii. According to the Company's credit policy, each local entity in the Company is responsible for managing and analysing the credit risk for each of their new clients before standard payment and delivery terms and conditions are offered. Internal risk control assesses the credit quality of the customers, taking into account their financial position, past experience and other factors. Individual risk limits are set based on accounting and administrator segment ratings in accordance with limits set by the Board of Directors. The utilisation of credit limits is regularly monitored. Credit risk mainly arose from cash and cash equivalents and receivables generated from operating activity. Only banks and financial institutions with optimal credit ratings are accepted.
- iii. The Company adopts assumptions under IFRS 9 to assess whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on that instrument since initial recognition. When the payment is past due 30 days based on the contract terms, there is a significant increase in credit risk on financial assets since initial recognition.
- iv. In line with credit risk management procedure, the default occurs when the Company expects that payment cannot be collected and reclassified as overdue receivables.
- v. The Company classifies customer's accounts receivable and contract assets in accordance with product types. The Company applies the simplified approach using the provision matrix to estimate expected credit loss.
- vi. The Company wrote-off the financial assets, which cannot be reasonably expected to be recovered, after initiating recourse procedures. However, the Company will continue executing the recourse procedures to secure their rights. On December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had no written-off financial assets that are still under recourse procedures.
- vii. The Company uses the forecastability to adjust historical and timely information to assess the default possibility of accounts receivable. On December 31, 2023 and 2022, the provision matrix is as follows:

| December 31, 2023 |                    |                   |                |

| Over 121 days     | 0%                 | 18,361            | -              |
|                   |                    | $ 841,608 | $ 39   |

Note: The above does not include overdue receivables. All the overdue receivables had been recognised with loss allowance.

viii. Movements in relation to the Company applying the simplified approach to provide loss allowance for accounts receivable (including overdue receivables) are as follows:

|   | 2023             | 2022             |
|---|------------------|------------------|
| At January 1                                | $ 98,278        | $ 98,282        |
| Prorision for (reversal of) impairment loss | 68               | (4)              |
| At December 31                              | $ 98,346 | $ 98,278 |

For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the provision for (reversal of) impairment loss arising from customers' contracts amounted to ($68) and $4, respectively

(c) Liquidity risk

- i. Cash flow forecasting is performed in the operating units of the Company and aggregated by the capital management department. Company treasury monitors rolling forecasts of the Company's liquidity requirements to ensure that it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs.
- ii. The table below is the Company's non-derivative financial liabilities which is presented based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contract maturity date and undiscounted maturity amount based on the maturity date:

(3) Fair value information

A. The different levels that the inputs to valuation techniques are used to measure fair value of financial and non-financial instruments have been defined as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date. A market is regarded as active where a market in which transactions for the asset or liability take place with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis. The fair value of the Company's investment in listed, OTC and emerging stocks is included in Level 1.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. The fair value of the Company's investment in listed and OTC stocks of private placement is included in Level 2.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. The fair value of the Company's investment in equity investment without active market is included in Level 3.

B. Financial instruments not measured at fair value.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, current financial assets at amortised cost, notes receivable, accounts receivable (including related parties), other receivables (including related parties), guarantee deposits paid, notes payable, accounts payable (including related parties) and other payables (including related parties), lease liabilities and guarantee deposits received approximate to their fair values.

C. The related information on financial and non-financial instruments measured at fair value by level on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the assets and liabilities is as follows:

| December 31, 2023   | Level 1 | Level 2 | Level 3 | Total |

D. The methods and assumptions the Company used to measure fair value are as follows:

(a) The instruments the Company used market quoted prices as their fair values (that is, Level 1) are listed below by characteristics:

|                     | Listed (OTC) and emerging shares |

(b) Except for financial instruments with active markets, the fair value of other financial instruments is measured by using valuation techniques or by reference to counterparty quotes. The fair value of financial instruments measured by using valuation techniques method can be referred to current fair value of instruments with similar terms and characteristics in substance, discounted cash flow method or other valuation methods, including calculated by applying model using market information available at the balance sheet date.

- (c) For highly complex financial instruments, the fair value is measured by using self-developed valuation model based on the valuation method and technique widely used within the same industry. The valuation model is normally applied to derivative financial instruments, debt instruments with embedded derivatives or securitised instruments. Certain inputs used in the valuation model are not observable at market, and the Company must make reasonable estimates based on its assumptions. The effect of unobservable inputs to the valuation of financial instruments is provided in Notes 12(3) H and I.
- (d) The output of valuation model is an estimated value and the valuation technique may not be able to capture all relevant factors of the Company's financial and non-financial instruments. Therefore, the estimated value derived using valuation model is adjusted accordingly with additional inputs, for example, model risk or liquidity risk and etc. In accordance with the Company's management policies and relevant control procedures relating to the valuation models used for fair value measurement, management believes adjustment to valuation is necessary in order to reasonably represent the fair value of financial and non-financial instruments at the parent company only balance sheet. The inputs and pricing information used during valuation are carefully assessed and adjusted based on current market conditions.
- E. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, there was no transfer between Level 1 and Level 2.
- F. The following chart is the movement of Level 3 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022:

|   | Equity securities |                  |
|---|-------------------|------------------|
|   | 2023              | 2022             |
| At January 1                                    | $ 41,941         | $ 60,731        |
| Losses recognised in other comprehensive income | -                 | ( 2,582)         |
| Acquired during the year                        | -                 | 15,000           |
| Disposal during the year                        | -                 | ( 31,208)        |
| At December 31                                  | $ 41,941  | $ 41,941 |

- G. Treasury department segment is in charge of valuation procedures for fair value measurements being categorised within Level 3, which is to verify independent fair value of financial instruments. Such assessment is to ensure the valuation results are reasonable by applying independent information to make results close to current market conditions, confirming the resource of information is independent, reliable and in line with other resources and represented as the exercisable price, and frequently calibrating valuation model, updating inputs used to the valuation model and making any other necessary adjustments to the fair value.
- H. The following is the qualitative information of significant unobservable inputs and sensitivity analysis of changes in significant unobservable inputs to valuation model used in Level 3 fair value measurement:

|   | Fair value atDecember 31,2023 | Valuationtechnique      | Significantunobservableinput | Range (weightedaverage) | Relationshipof inputs tofair value                                |

- I. The Company has carefully assessed the valuation models and assumptions used to measure fair value. However, use of different valuation models or assumptions may result in different measurement. The following is the effect on profit or loss or on other comprehensive income from financial assets categorised within Level 3 if the inputs used to valuation models have changed:

Note 1: The numbers filled in for the transaction company in respect of inter-company transactions are as follows:

(1) Parent company is '0'.

(2) The subsidiaries are numbered in order starting from '1'.

Note 2: Relationship between transaction company and counterparty is classified into the following three categories ; fill in the number of category each case belongs to (if transactions between parent company and subsidiaries or between subsidiaries refer to the same transaction, it is not required to disclose twice. For example, if the parent company has already disclosed its transaction with a subsidiary, then the subsidiary is not required to disclose the transaction; for transactions between two subsidiaries, if one of the subsidiaries has disclosed the transaction, then the other is not required to disclose the transaction):

(1) Parent company to subsidiary.

(2) Subsidiary to parent company.

(3) Subsidiary to subsidiary.

Note 3: Regarding percentage of transaction amount to consolidated total operating revenues or total assets, it is computed based on period-end balance of transaction to consolidated total assets for balance sheet accounts and based on accumulated transaction amount for the period to consolidated total operating revenues for income statement accounts.

Note 4: There is no similar transaction to compare with. It will follow the agreed price and transaction terms.

Note 5: The disclosure standard reaches above $10,000 for the transaction amount.

Note 1: Information on the analysis of decreases or increases in the past two years (when the operating gross profit has changed by over 20%, the differential analysis table shall also be produced; when the changes are less than 20%, analysis may be waived):

1. Gross profit decreased: mainly due to the decrease in the number and scale of the main game activities, resulting in a decrease in operating revenue.
2. The increase in non-operating income and expenses is mainly due to the decrease in impairment loss.
3. Decrease in income tax benefits (expenses): mainly due to the decrease in profits.
4. Other comprehensive income: mainly due to the decrease in exchange differences on the translation of financial statements of foreign operations.

Note 2: Reason for the change to the main scope of operation: There were no major changes to the Company's scope of operation and hence no analysis is intended.

Note 3: Expected sales in the coming year and the rationale and major influential factors for the expected sales of the Company to keep growing or declining:

1. Operating income of the Company includes the income from gaming software (online games, mobile services) and sales of goods. As we do not make financial forecast, no sales statistics are available.
2. Possible impacts on the future financial operations of the Company and the countermeasures: The Company will continue to add gaming software and the payment service to its scope of operation for a growth in the operational scale and to fulfill the profitability goal.

(II) Analysis of changes in gross profit: The change in gross profit is not significant, so no analysis is intended.

IV. Impact of Major Capital Expenditure in the Past Year on Finance and Business: None.

V. Main Reasons for Profits or Losses of Latest Reinvestment Policy, Improvement Plan, and Investment Plan for the Coming Year

(I) Reinvestment Policy:

All the Company's reinvestments using the equity method aimed at consolidating its core business and optimizing the transformation of its subsidiaries, and further improving the long-term strategic objectives of the Group's network ecosystem layout.

(II) Main Reasons for Profits or Losses and Improvement Plans

The investment loss recognized under the equity method for the Company in 2023 was NTD 22,115 thousand, a decrease of NTD 8,319 thousand from 2022. This decrease was primarily due to investment losses from scaled-back investments in certain associated enterprises in the electronic payment and e-commerce sectors, as they did not achieve profitability as per International Accounting Standard 28. In the future, the Company will implement restructuring, focus on stable growth and control expenses to enhance operational performance.

(III) Investment Plan for the Coming Year:

The future reinvestments using the equity method will still adhere to the principle of long-term strategic investment and continuous careful evaluation will be carried out.

VI. Analysis and Evaluation of Risk Matters in the Past Year up to the Date the Annual Report was Printed:

(I) Impacts of Changes in Interest Rate, Exchange Rate, and Inflation on the Company's Profits or Losses and Countermeasures in the Future:

1. Impacts of changes in interest rate on the Company's profits or losses and countermeasures in the future :

The Federal Reserve has raised interest rates significantly for many times, causing major central banks around the world to raise interest rates one after another. However, the proportion of the Company's interest income and interest expenses to operating income and net income before tax is not high. Therefore, changes in interest rates have little impact on the Company. The finance unit evaluates bank interest rates on a regular basis and maintains close contact with banks to obtain more favorable borrowing rates and deposit rates to minimize the impact of interest rate changes on the Company.

2. Impacts of changes in exchange rate on the Company's profits or losses and countermeasures in the future:

As far as foreign currency assets are concerned, the Financial Unit of the Company stays in close contact with the foreign exchange department of each corresponding bank and pays attention to international finance at all times in order to keep track of the latest changes in exchange rate. Since loss or profit from exchange does not account for a large ratio in the operating profit or pre-tax net profit of the Company, changes in exchange rate do not have material impacts on the loss or profit of the Company.

3. Impacts of inflation on the Company's profits or losses and countermeasures in the future:

Current inflation has led to an increase in expenses on respective daily consumables. Entertainment-related spending, nevertheless, is a necessity in life. Meanwhile, the Company has not suffered significant impacts from inflation in terms of profit or loss according to prior experiences. As such, inflation has limited impacts on the Company's loss or profit.

(II) Policies on engagement in high-risk and high-leverage investments, lending of funds to others, endorsements and guarantees, and derivative transactions, main reasons for profits or losses, and countermeasures in the future:

1. The Group has had its Operating Procedure for Lending of Funds and Endorsement/Guarantee and Regulations Governing the Acquisition and Disposal of Assets, among others, approved through its shareholders' meeting to govern applicable operations.
2. The Group is not engaged in high-risk and high-leverage investments or transactions where lending of funds to others and derivatives are involved.

(III) Future research and development plans and R&D expenses expected to be devoted

NTD 460 million is expected to be invested in R&D in 2024 to maintain our competitive advantage. In order to keep investing in the development of mobile games and mobile life Apps and also to answer to the maturing environment for opening up the third-party payment market to related cloud services now, the development of cross-platform transaction-related technologies and electronic payment systems between mobile games and online platforms will be significantly increased in the future.

(IV) Impacts of important domestic and international policies and regulatory changes on the Company's financial performance and response measures:

Currently, respective financial operations of the Group have been handled in compliance with regulatory requirements. In addition, there are exclusive legal, financial, and accounting units inside the Group that have carefully evaluated respective laws and regulations and planned countermeasures in order to be compliant with regulatory requirements and to reduce their impacts on the financial operations of the Group. The financial operations of the Group had not suffered major negative impacts as a result of major changes to policies and laws domestically and internationally as of the date the Annual Report was printed.

(V) Impact of science and technology development (including cybersecurity risks) and industrial changes on the Company's finance and business, and countermeasures:

1. The impact of changes in the external environment on the internal (information and communication security business) of the organization
  - (1) Safety of information system operations
  - (2) Employee information security risk awareness
  - (3) Operation or service interruption
  - (4) Management of upstream and downstream suppliers
  - (5) External intrusion or malicious attack
  - (6) Emerging technologies and practical impacts
2. Corresponding measures
  - (1) Regular review of information security practices
    - The Information Security Committee regularly reviews information and communication security management practices and formulates corresponding solutions or plans.
    - Update and adjust the relevant information operating specifications and procedures based on the current situation from time to time, conduct regular on-site inspections of the implementation of the operating environment, explore potential risks, and provide corrective, preventive or compensating control measures.
    - For emerging technologies, timely adjust, connect or formulate corresponding management specifications or procedures (e.g. cloud application and management, artificial intelligence and data protection, etc.) to ensure the compliance of information operations.
  - (2) Information security education and training
    - Information security e-newsletter is sent from time to time.
    - The Company has prepared its own required courses and tests for information security online education and training.

- Conduct secondary education and training for employees who fail the test to enhance employees' information security awareness and increase their vigilance against possible social engineering frauds.
- (3) Operation continuation and disaster recovery drill
- The Company has a backup mechanism in place for its core operation services and data. In case of unexpected damage to the core operation system or database and forcing interruption, the Company can resume the operation within the time limit set by different services.
- (4) Protection of data and privacy
- The law stipulates that all operating units should minimize the data collection principle, comply with the Personal Data Protection Law, and implement processing and protection measures at all links; through sensitive data masking, field/database encryption, and access authorization and alarm mechanisms to ensure data security.
- (5) Strengthening of safety management and monitoring
- Establish the necessary protection measures, including the segmentation of important network segments and access authorization control, firewall, intrusion detection and blocking attack mechanisms.
  - The Company conducts vulnerability detection and penetration testing on websites that provide connection services to external parties from time to time, and performs system updates and vulnerability repairs.
  - Establish rigorous system data access control or exchange requirements, encryption technology, conduct regular vulnerability scanning and strengthen protective measures to reduce the risk of data leakage.
  - Establish a multi-layered defense and detection system, install anti-virus systems on all terminals, and adopt a central management method for active monitoring and protection to reduce the risk of malware infection and attack.
- (6) Monitor industry trends
- Legal requirements
    - Compliance with the Cyber Security Control Guidelines by Publicly Listed Companies.
    - Amendments to the Personal Information Protection Act.
  - External Significant Security Issues
    - Collect daily network and information security related intelligence, and release internal information security information on current high-risk information security attack methods and security protections from time to time.

(VI) Impacts of changes in the corporate image on the management of corporate risks and the countermeasures:

The Gamania Group has been maintaining robust operational performance over the long term, consolidating its core values, perfecting corporate governance, and devoted to seeking maximum benefits for its shareholders and its employees. Its corporate image has been good in the nation. The Company continues with its belief in “exploring infinite possibilities of delight”. Based on the games it creates to help people stay away from depression and remain ambitious and hopeful that are full of creativity to move the players, it has contributed to the long-term developments of the industry. Not only the international corporate image that has been boosted, improved competitive advantages of gaming contents from Taiwan internationally are also a goal.

The Group has its own brand center, customer service, global corporate marketing, investor relations, employee relations, risk management, internal control, and the Gamania Cheer Up Foundation to come together so that the Company can reach new heights on the basis of a good corporate image while at the same time having respective counter measures in place to eradicate and to keep any possible crisis under control.

(VII) Expected benefits and possible risks of mergers and acquisitions and the countermeasures: Not applicable.

(VIII) Expected benefits and possible risks of the expansion of plants and the countermeasures: Not applicable.

(IX) Risks associated with focused purchases or sales and the countermeasures:

For major sources of purchases and destinations of sales, refer to the descriptions provided in the preceding section. They reflect the characteristics of the gaming industry and phased operational strategies. In the future, goals of the Group will be adequately diversified reflective of the industrial growth pattern to decentralize the sources of purchases and destinations of sales and to hopefully maintain balanced and robust operational achievements.

- (X) Impacts and risks of transfer or exchange of stock options in large quantities by directors, supervisors, or heavyweight shareholders holding more than 10% of all shares on the Company and the countermeasures: None.
- (XI) Impacts and risks of the change in the management on the Company, risks, and countermeasures: Not Applicable.
- (XII) Lawsuits and non-lawsuit events. Major lawsuits and non-lawsuits or administrative disputes with a finalized verdict or ongoing proceedings that involve the Company, the Company's directors, supervisors, president, actual person in charge, and shareholders holding more than 10% of all shares, and the associated companies shall be listed. If the results are likely to have significant impacts on shareholders' equity or prices of securities, the facts, target value, and start date of the lawsuit, main clients involved, and handling status as of the date of the Annual Report was printed shall be disclosed: None.
- (XIII) Other important risks and countermeasures: None.

VII. Other important matters: None.
