

Gamania Group Announces Unaudited Consolidated Revenue for September 2026

Unit: NT$ thousand

| Monthly    | September. 2026 | August. 2026    | MoM %            |
|------------|-----------------|-----------------|------------------|
| Revenue    | 890,060         | 912,976         | -3%              |
| Monthly    | September. 2026 | September. 2025 | YoY %            |
| Revenue    | 890,060         | 648,788         | 37%              |
| Cumulative | Cumulative 2026 | Cumulative 2025 | Cumulative YoY % |
| Revenue    | 7,073,519       | 7,071,966       | 0%               |

Gamania Group today announced its unaudited consolidated revenue of NT$890 million for September 2026, representing a 3% MoM decrease and a 37% YoY increase. Although September marked the seasonal transition following the end of the summer vacation peak, the Classic version of the Group's popular PC game continued to reach new heights in popularity, driving overall gaming performance and providing solid support for monthly revenue. Meanwhile, demand from new enterprise cloud clients also contributed to revenue momentum in the enterprise services business. Bolstered by the strong momentum in September, the accumulated unaudited consolidated revenue for the January to September period reached NT$7.07 billion, turning from a YoY decline to positive growth.

Gaming & AI Dual-Core Strategy:

Gamania Group continues to advance its dual-core strategy of gaming and AI, deepening its three growth pillars: AI services, game publishing, and in-house game development. In the gaming segment, multiple titles rolled out successive updates in September. MapleStory launched a limited-time collaboration with the popular anime IP "Frieren: Beyond Journey's End," broadening player engagement, while Mabinogi celebrated its 21st anniversary by hosting its first-ever offline concert, combined with a game update and online events to deepen the player experience. In addition, Dragon Nest Retro officially launched in Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Macau at the end of the month, reconnecting players through nostalgic classic content. Lineage M also released a major update featuring classic characters and all-new gameplay to strengthen core player retention, with the benefits expected to extend into October.

Corporate Social Responsibility:

Beyond driving business growth, Gamania Group continues to put its core corporate values into practice. The Gamania Cheer Up Foundation hosted the "2026 New Explorers Adventure Academy," leading participants on a trek along the Taiwan Adventure Pilgrimage Trail. The program helps young people build courage and the ability to turn ideas into action through hands-on experience, while fostering a more diverse adventure culture and education landscape in Taiwan.